

MARSHALL'S NOMINATION A CERTAINTY

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—The gentle work of puncturing vice-presidential booms is being carried out nearly today by Democratic leaders. Vice-President Marshall will be renominated, according to the leaders—there's nothing to it—it's cut and dried.

But for the purpose of pep and some disorder there have been suggestions about the nomination of Secretary of War Baker, Barker Kellum of Illinois and Governor Major of Missouri.

The Baker agitation is not new. It was started some weeks ago by a young and progressive element of the party and has been steadily nursed along by Henry Morgenthau of the Wilson Independent League and others.

TEXAS FOR BAKER.

The Texas delegation is reported strongly in favor of the war secretary and many of the Democrats here feel that, being a rip-snorting campaigner, Baker would make a better running mate for Wilson than Marshall and would also appeal to the younger Democracy.

The boom progressed through yesterday. Then some leaders began to get nervous about it. Fairbanks for President boomers at the Chicago convention urged the Hoosier as an aid in electing two Republican Senators from Indiana this fall. Marshall-for-vice-presidential leaders here have taken the same slogan, stating that with Marshall as an antidote the Fairbanks vice-presidential candidacy can never swing Indiana away from Wilson and those two about-to-be Senators.

Finally Tom Taggart, who is first of all the official harmonizers of this convention, got into communication with the White House by telephone last night. He learned that the President was in no way participating in the boom of Baker—and today the needles will be applied to it.

SULLIVAN AMUSED.

There is a lot of noise for Sullivan, some placards announcing him as a candidate and J. Ham Lewis denouncing him for the same office. Sullivan views the thing with some amusement. He declines to finance the boom of Baker, but does not object to his friends having what ever fun they can out of it. As a matter of fact when it comes to the show-down Sullivan will be for Marshall. Tom Taggart reiterated this belief early today.

Governor Major's boom is not serious, although it promises to be the hardest to get rid of. The operation probably will require several days and may even go to the floor of the convention.

Democratic Senator Leads Hughes Attack

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Senator Thomas, Colorado, today introduced a resolution for amendment to the constitution prohibiting members of the Supreme Court being candidates for public offices.

This is in line with the Democratic program to assault Justice Hughes in leaving the bench for the Republican nomination.

Venezelos Opponents Make Demonstration

ATHENS, June 12.—The offices of the newspapers which have supported former Premier Venezelos were made the objects of a hostile demonstration today. The demonstrators were composed mainly of those who had been spectators earlier at a horse show in the stadium, which was attended by King Constantine and the royal family.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Frank A. Munsey, who with George W. Perkins has been among the strongest Roosevelt supporters, called upon Charles E. Hughes at the Hotel Astor yesterday. The New York Press, owned by Munsey, declared for Hughes, and said:

"When Roosevelt sent his message to the Progressive convention he ended definitely his and his opposition to the election of Hughes."

Munsey declined to be interviewed, but authorized the following statement:

"The United Press is assured by Mr. Munsey himself that the editorials in the New York Press today represent his own personal views as well as those of his newspapers in the present political situation. Mr. Munsey said that he personally, and with his newspapers, would throw all his strength to Hughes in the present campaign."

With regard to Perkins, Munsey's Press today said:

"Second only to Colonel Roosevelt himself, the credit for bringing about political harmony in Chicago belongs, and rightfully belongs, to George W. Perkins."

IOWA FOR HUGHES

DES MOINES, Ia., June 13.—Casper Schneck, defeated candidate for United States Senator two years ago on the Progressive ticket and Bull Moose leader in Iowa, today declared himself for Hughes, and asserted that Iowa Progressives would support the Republican ticket.

"The Progressive party in Iowa," said Schneck, "practically ceased to exist with the nomination of Hughes at Chicago. The Progressives who were Democrats will go to Wilson if he is nominated, and the Progressives who were Republicans will return to the Republican party."

"As an independent organization the Progressives can hardly hope to recover from the recent acts of its well-nigh idolized leader. I shall support Hughes for the Presidency."

NEBRASKANS DROP OUT

OMAHA, Neb., June 13.—Progressives are so pleased over the nomination of Hughes that the state candidates of that party are preparing to withdraw from the race in favor of the Republican nominees of the same offices.

"Hughes suits us," says W. D. Henry of Omaha, Progressive nominee for the United States Senate. "I will resign in a day or two. We Progressive candidates talked over the situation some days ago and decided if Hughes were nominated to withdraw in favor of the Republican candidates. We are very much disappointed in Roosevelt. He is a man without a following."

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 12.—Minnesota Progressives are likely to support Hughes. C. W. Halbert, state chairman, said today:

"It's to be borne in mind that the selection of Hughes by the Republicans is not a victory for the reactionaries, but really a victory for Roosevelt, who put them in a position where they had to nominate such a man."

change of less than 12 per cent of the total vote in the block of twelve suffrage states will swing them all. We can control that vote."

The committee that will file the women's ultimatum with the Democratic committee will consist of Miss Anna Martin of Nevada, national chairman; Sara Hard Field, Maud Towner and L. Finney Mackrill.

APPEAL TO DELEGATES

With arrangements completed for a hearing before the resolutions committee of the Democratic convention as soon as it is organized, other suffragists today directed their principal effort to an educational campaign among the delegates. Armed with thousands of pamphlets explaining the political views of women in twelve states and forecasting the probable effect of the vote in the South, Miss Mabel Vernon, secretary of the Woman's party, and her aides made a thorough canvass of the leading hotels. Every delegate discovered was given a pamphlet.

Members of the National American Women Suffrage Association held final rehearsals for the "Golden Lane" street display tomorrow, when hundreds of women will participate. Speakers from the Congressional Union addressed crowds on the prominent street corners. The street corners speaking, new to St. Louis, created interest among persons following the speakers. Having addressed a communication to President Wilson yesterday in the interest of the suffrage movement, members of the Congressional Union today prepared for a campaign in Indiana, the home of Vice-President Marshall.

Miss Elsie Hill, daughter of Representative Hill of Connecticut, was despatched there to open a branch of the union and create interest in the campaign.

BYRAN NOT HELPING

William Jennings Bryan arrived today and found the Democratic national committee ready to tell him "goodbye and God bless you."

Nothing could be more indicative of how Democracy's times have changed than the fact that the great Commoner, four times a dominant figure in national conventions and three times a Democratic candidate for presidential honors, now stands in the councils of that party as a mere alternant from Nebraska and a reporter.

In all the platform talk heard today there was no indication that the former Secretary of State would have a hand in the hewing of the planks. He pleaded to direct the business prohibition issue into the convention, and having done so, the Democrats today were willing to let Bryan alone, with hopes that Bryan would also let Democracy alone and raise no discordant notes in the harmonious program.

EX-SUFFRAGIST CHUMS

Twenty years ago the silver-tongued orator went to the 1896 Democratic convention as a reporter, thrilled Democracy with eloquence and departed as its presidential candidate. Four years later he was again a national figure, but in 1904 his leadership was rejected and another candidate chosen, but four years afterward it was William J. Bryan who made the race as Democratic standard-bearer. In 1912 it was Bryan who forced the nomination of Woodrow Wilson, and he headed off Champ Clark and Bryan who dictated the platform.

In the convention of 1916 William J. Bryan will be a reporter again—just as he was twenty years ago. He is officially accredited also as an alternant, and is expected to occupy the chair from the floor except by unanimous consent. Newspaper reporters, of course, can not participate in the proceedings. Therefore, according to all indications today, Bryan will be out of the show. He may be invited to make a speech before the business of the convention has proceeded to the point where oratory is needed to fill in—but no aid or advice will be sought of him; no part in the drama of Democratic politics will be cast for him.

WILSON'S PLATFORM

The platform building—in which work Bryan four years ago was the master carpenter—is already done. Tonight Secretary of War Baker arrives with the draft approved by President Wilson himself.

The chief executive is credited personally with writing the number of planks. He has talked the whole document over with Senator Stone of Missouri. The latter will have principal direction of the putting together of the words and pledges on which Democracy will make the race this year.

The great bulk of the delegates were expected to arrive today. Lobbies of the Jefferson and Planters' hotels are showing more of the convention spirit—but so far exactly one band has blared its way about downtown and there hasn't been a sign of a parade.

The delegates are expected to be alternately dodging and talking to woman suffrage workers, several scores of moving picture operators are on the job from dawn to dark and several hundred newspaper reporters hunt for choice bits of news.

CONVINCED VICTOR

St. Louis has done herself proud on convention weather. The days have been just warm enough to make summer clothes comfortable, but not sticky enough to be enervating.

It was said while the renomination of Marshall for Vice-President seemed likely today it might not be unparaphrased.

Roger Sullivan of Illinois and Governor Major of Missouri both have shouters boosting them for the second place berth and probably will draw the complimentary votes from their state delegations. There was practiced certainty, however, that not more than this number of votes would be registered against Marshall's renomination.

Friends of Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois indignantly declared today that if Roger Sullivan's name was presented as a candidate for the vice-presidential nomination the man who made the whiskey famous in politics would also go before the delegates. It was asserted that Lewis could command a big bunch of Illinois delegates, even bigger than those who might vote for Sullivan.

DELEGATES TO CONVENTION. Delegates to the convention, which opens at noon tomorrow, appeared to be interested in two questions today. One was whether or not Vice-President Marshall would be renominated by acclamation or whether the favorite sons would insist upon their names going before the convention for a ballot. The other was the probable action of the delegates with regard to the demand of the suffragists for an unequivocal decision in the platform in favor of equal rights. Holding of caucuses for the selection of committee assignments by state delegations was planned for today and tonight.

Democratic leaders looked forward with interest to the arrival today of Secretary of War Baker and William J. Bryan. Report has it that Secretary Baker has with him the final drafts of the planks in which President Wilson is most interested.

WONDER ABOUT BRYAN

With the coming of Bryan speculation increases among delegates as to whether or not he will appear before the resolutions committee and advocate a preparedness plank along the lines of his often expressed views and whether or not he will urge the committee to adopt some sort of declaration on the liquor question.

Among others expected to appear before the committee are Rear Admirals Hugo Osterhaus and Richard Wainwright, retired, with a delegation from the Navy League. They will present the views of the league as to the enlargement of the navy.

Senator Stone, former Representative of the Palmer of Pennsylvania and several other leaders continued the consideration of platform matters today. The committee will be named tomorrow. It will immediately organize and according to present indications the platform will be completed by Wednesday night. No report will be made to the convention until Friday morning, however.

The management of the Coliseum last night locked out 120 workmen and all representatives of the national committee for three hours and readmitted the workers only after the national committee had agreed to give the Coliseum managers four boxes containing twenty-two seats for all sessions of the convention.

LOCK-OUT ENDED

The lock-out caused the members of the national committee considerable anxiety as the Coliseum is partly decorated and without chairs for delegates, alternates and newspaper men. By working day and night shifts it will be possible to put the building in readiness in time for the opening of the convention, Wednesday noon.

Those who are interested in the make up of the national committee have found that the membership, which ceases with the close of the convention, contains five men who have served together for twenty years. They are Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, representing North Carolina; Clark Howell, Georgia; John T. McGraw, West Virginia; Senator Tillman, South Carolina, and Urey Woodson, Kentucky. Howell will remain a member of the committee and possibly McGraw will. The three other members will retire.

RECESS ARRANGED

The convention will adjourn early on Wednesday, probably immediately after the keynote speech of ex-Governor Glynn, out of respect to the memory of the late Thomas J. Pence, secretary of the Democratic national committee. On other things which led to the decision to put short the session was the discovery that if the usual program was adhered to three out of four of the big oratorical flights of the convention would come on the same day—Chairman McCumber's opening speech, Temporary Chairman Glynn's "keynote" talk and Permanent Chairman Ollie James' sub-keynote.

It was felt it would be better to distribute some of this verbal thunder, so James will be given one day to himself, and Judge Wescott will also have a day to himself for renominating Wilson.

Conventionality

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—St. Louis papers, not knowing that Senator Tom Taggart of Indiana had shaved off his time-honored mustache, printed cartoons of him wearing it, on one page and others of him without it, on the next.

"Where," asked a friend, "did you lose your mustache?"

"Somewhere between the weather forecast and the back page," replied the senator.

Charles F. Murphy, head of Tammany, is very much in evidence. "He began running a street car in New York," said one delegate to another. "Yes," said the other one, "and wound up by running New York and his own car."

The suffragists have taken headquarters just outside the dining room doors in order to catch the delegates coming out while feeling good.

Dick Kinsella, scout for John McGraw, is a doorkeeper at the convention, looking over the delegate for promising material for the New York Giants.

WHY MAJORS SEEKS VICE-PRESIDENCY

Perfectly Lucid Explanation Is Prepared, But Kept Secret.

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—Having noted the lithographs, the reporter called to ask Governor Major—Governor Elliott W. Major, of Missouri—just why he wants to be vice-president of the United States. He got an answer to that question at the governor's headquarters after a long and interesting quest, but the upshot of it all is that the governor declines to say, and his campaign managers don't know.

When found, the governor was seated, before a large pile, mosaic fireplace, in a carafe, yellow and turkey red room at the Platters.

A surprisingly long, slender personage at all times, the governor today seemed unusually high in body, spirits, color, hopes and all that.

But he seemed a bit stunned by the question. He summoned Judge Graves, a very ample and amiable old gentleman with a large mellow voice, who was walking around the room behind his stomach.

Heading the reporter's way, the judge's stomach came over followed by the judge himself, and the question was put again. He, too, seemed surprised by it, and taking the reporter by the coat lapel, led him slowly around the room several times while he thought it over.

Meantime a very large young man, who looks as though he might be a judge, or a couple of them, quietly led the governor out.

The judge lowered himself upon a crash and bewildered chair, peered searchingly at the reporter over his glasses and held out a long typewritten statement, which began: "The Democracy of Missouri feels—" and continued through twenty-seven paragraphs and postscripts to describe its feelings.

"Notice it says Indiana has had four Republican and four Democratic vice-presidential nominations and Missouri none?" bellowed the judge.

"Who were these eight vice-presidential?" he was asked.

"Well, there's Marshall," began the judge, "and Fairbanks, and—"

"That was all he could remember. Others in the room were appealed to and they couldn't remember either. One man finally recalled Hendricks and Kern and the judge closed the subject. At this point the governor came back. He had returned to say that he felt he could not, with dignity state his reasons, if any, for wanting to be vice-president of the United States. It would not, as the governor expressed it, be "etiquette." In hastening away, again, however, he remarked that perhaps the judge could tell the reporter what he wanted to know.

But the judge, nodding his typewritten manuscript and pointing his stomach in the opposite direction, remarked that he had never given the matter a thought.

"But Major is running for the vice-presidency—not from it, as many others have done," said the judge.

Straus Is for Hughes Pledges His Support

NEW YORK, June 13.—Oscar S. Straus, Progressive candidate for governor of New York in 1912, and delegate at large to the recent Progressive national convention, has by telegram to Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for President, pledged his support. Straus' telegram read:

"In recognition of your splendid record and relying on your unflinching stand for a complete and unadorned Americanism, with the single devotion to the highest welfare of all our people and the ideals of social justice that have so endeared to us the visioned leadership of Theodore Roosevelt, ever genuinely progressive, should in my judgment give you his enthusiastic support. You will certainly have mine."

Discussing the sentiment of Progressives, Straus said:

"Next to Roosevelt, Hughes is the most suitable man to the Progressives. We made the Republican old guard take Hughes, a man they did not want."

When the refusal of Colonel Roosevelt to accept the Progressive nomination was mentioned, Straus said:

"It was the best thing to do. Roosevelt was perfectly right in refusing."

Hughes Cherished Secret Ambition

Nominee Bares Soul to Newspaper Editor

NEW YORK, June 13.—The New York Evening Post this afternoon published correspondence in which John P. Gavitt, its managing editor, endeavored to employ Justice Hughes to report the national conventions. Hughes replied as follows:

"Dear Gavitt: I have received your letter of May 18. I cannot tell you how deeply touched I am by your kind offer. At last my secret ambition is laid bare. For many years I have longed to be a newspaper correspondent and say a few things. But my talent for up-to-date, virile, philosophical, prophetic, cinematographic correspondence has been unrecognized and one exigency after another has compelled me to make other arrangements. I am now under contract for work, relatively unimportant, which, however, will detain me here during the time the convention is held. I put aside my longing to see a convention; that is very great, but it is as nothing compared to my wish to write one up and to show the best of newspapers how it may be improved. Faithfully, (Signed) 'CHARLES E. HUGHES.'"

Kentucky Democratic Delegation in Wreck

OWENSBORO, Ky., June 13.—Kentucky Democrats bound for the national convention in St. Louis were injured when the Louisville train was wrecked here early today.

Two Pullmans left the rails and another overturned. Many passengers were injured and some of them were rushed to hospitals, where none was found to be in a serious condition. Mayor John H. Buschmeyer of Louisville was thrown from a berth and badly bruised.

Included in the party of Democrats were Governor A. O. Stanley, former Governor James B. McCreary, General W. B. Hildeman and Lieutenant Governor Black. They were uninjured.

A spill rail was blamed for the wreck, which delayed the train several hours.

Advertising Bureau Arrives in Spokane

SEATTLE, June 13.—Seattle welcomed the advertising bureau of the Oakland Tribune Commerce, on its trip to Spokane upon its arrival there at 12:30 today. A luncheon was tendered the party by the Seattle A. C. Club and a theater and dinner party was planned for the evening. The local contingent arrived in Tacoma this morning where they were entertained at a breakfast given by the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce.

The party stopped two hours at Salem yesterday morning and entertained Governor Withycombe at his office. The governor was presented with a dozen costly gifts from various manufacturing and industrial concerns of Oakland. Portland was also visited yesterday.

The delegations will leave Seattle tonight and arrive in Spokane Wednesday afternoon at 4:30.

Grade Crossings of County Inspected

Representatives of the railroad commission, the Southern Pacific Company, the county surveyor and the district attorney's offices inspected railroad grade crossings in Alameda county today in connection with the movement to eliminate such crossings wherever possible in the interests of public safety.

The inspection party consists of R. C. Ashworth, engineer for the railroad commission; Fred A. Bordwell, division engineer of the Southern Pacific Company; Chief Deputy County Surveyor George A. Posey and Deputy District Attorney M. J. Clark.

Each crossing and its approaches will be studied in order to determine the feasibility of eliminating it.

Turkish Troops Win Further Successes

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 13.—The offensive movement recently undertaken in the Caucasus by Turkish troops has won further successes, according to an announcement made by the war office today.

"In fighting on the right and left wings in the Caucasus we captured a number of prisoners and a great quantity of field telephones and trench implements," the statement says.

"Five hostile aeroplanes dropped about fifty bombs on Smyrna yesterday. Some men, women and children were killed and houses were destroyed."

McCOMBS INVITES PROGRESSIVES IN

Other Democrats Show Less Willing Compromise Spirit.

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—Democratic National Chairman McCombs wired Halabridge Colby of New York an invitation to join the Democratic party. His action was based on Colby's reputation of Roosevelt, for whom he had made the nominating speech in the Progressive convention at Chicago Saturday.

McCombs' action was the most striking development to date of the Democratic leaders' efforts to find a way to kidnap the 4,000,000 votes of the Progressive party which they considered orphaned by Roosevelt's decision not to be their candidate.

"The telegram read: 'I have read your statement. It appears that Colonel Roosevelt has attempted to send his former enthusiastic followers stumbling along to destruction. The Progressive Democracy cordially and sincerely offers them safety.'"

McCombs' phrase "stumbling along" was adapted from Colby's statement of yesterday. Colby said among other things:

"The Progressives have sustained a head-on collision with their leader. The fact is manifest. He is to look the situation over and decide what to do, but we, too, will look the field over and determine what we will do."

McCombs said today he expected to see many men like Colby who were prominent in the Progressive convention declare for Wilson. He refused to comment on reports that some of the active Democratic leaders had attempted to force the efforts to win over the Progressives to a national child labor law and recognition of the woman suffrage movement may be two of the leading planks in the Democratic platform designed to catch Progressive votes.

The child labor plank is to be the principal feature of the "social welfare" clause. Those urging this plank desire it to show Progressives that the Democratic party is willing to abandon its historic stand on this subject. A canvass of strength, progressive Democrats claim, has shown the Southern Democrats here have not sufficient strength to block this plank.

Opposition to the Progressive wing program was voiced today by Senator Harwick of Georgia, one of the conservative group in the Senate.

GEORGIAN VIEW.

"If we win, we'll win as Democrats on historic Democratic issues," said Harwick. "The so-called Progressives, I believe, will get checked up short if they attempt to override state's rights on child labor and similar measures."

Cautious old-line Democratic leaders, headed by Senator Taggart, succeeded in holding up the quick move planned by Chairman McCombs and others to bring the leaders of the Progressive wing into the Democratic party. The matter was too important for instant decision, Taggart said, and won several others to his view that the platform should be drafted before the Progressives were invited.

Urging that the Progressives should be asked here to offer suggestions before the platform is completed, the initiators of the kidnapping scheme went ahead lining up support today.

Many big Democrats, as far as they reached the city, were enlisted in the movement. Secretary of Agriculture Houston was one of these. The party has been working out many of the ideas advanced by the Progressives four years ago, he said, and there is room for the Progressives in the party.

Homer S. Cummings, the national committee's choice for national chairman, joined Chairman McCombs in advocacy of immediate, definite action, as opposed to delay and only a general invitation. The last named course would provide only for certain platform declarations intended to be attractive to Progressives. It would not include the granting of a hearing to Progressive leaders.

Urging Woodson, Kentucky national committeeman, joined the forces, urging definite action.

Opposition to the plan has grown out of the fear that it would bring a big radical element into the party that would be hard to handle, so the would-be kidnappers charged today. They say the fear is unfounded.

Express "Sympathy" for Parade Marchers

Expressing "sympathy" for workmen who are to participate in the preparedness parade, to be held in San Francisco on Independence Day, the local Central Labor Council last night passed the following resolution:

"Whereas, In a so-called 'preparedness parade' to be held in San Francisco on Independence Day, hundreds of office employees, many ignorantly and many against their own will, will be forced through fear of losing their jobs to march in the interests of their employers and the forces generally hind a movement to militarize America for exploitation at home and tyranny abroad.

"Be it resolved, that we members of union labor of Alameda county do hereby extend our sincere sympathy and condolence to these our brethren who are being thus utilized to create false sentiment in behalf of the masters of business and industry."

Court Sustains Civil Service Rule in S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Superior Judge Crothers today sustained the demerit of the city of San Francisco against Charles White and seven other plaintiffs who sought to restrain the civil service board from throwing away the 1916 list of eligibles to the rank of corporal. White and the seven others failed to pass the civil service examinations held for corporal on January 18 last.

The officers declared that the hearing of the Civil Auditorium was so poor that one moment they were compelled to remove their coats and the next one it would become so cold that they had to don their apparel to keep from freezing.

The policemen contended that this situation caused them to become so unnerved that they could hardly continue the examinations and that they blamed this situation as their downfall.

Carranza Issues Call for Election

MEXICO CITY, June 13.—General Carranza today took steps toward establishment of a civil government throughout Mexico when he issued a decree calling municipal elections on the first Sunday in September. Suffragists Talk Way Into Lodging

No Money, Yet They Get Headquarters

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—It was learned here today how the National Woman's party leaders are financing their St. Louis campaign with silver-tongued words and golden smiles.

"It's a secret," Mrs. Abbie Scott Baker told, as she really truly shouldn't, and her sister suffragettes would be awful mad if they found out.

Mrs. Baker and the others came down here from Chicago to impress the Democrats with the fact that they control 4,000,000 votes in the United States. But they didn't have any headquarters, and they didn't have any organization, and they didn't have any great amount of money appropriated for the St. Louis work and in fact they didn't have much of anything but themselves and the inclination.

So they caucused and finally "found a way." Mobilizing their forces, they formed them into two divisions, each starting from widely separated bases and converging to the point of attack, the point of attack being the Jefferson hotel management and the Democratic national committee.

Mrs. Baker led one smiling column. Sara Bard Field the other. And that's all they were armed with—smiles and sweet words. After making themselves agreeable in a diplomatic way to the enemy, the attacking forces, very, very delicately suggested their predicament.

Both management and committee capitulated instantly.

"The national committee," said Mrs. Baker, "gave us three gorgeous rooms of their headquarters reservations that we know absolutely the place with literature and Every member of that committee has certainly been mighty nice to us."

"They wouldn't think of letting us pay for the rooms."

"And the hotel management, too. Not only has it given us this big parlor right off the lobby, but it has provided us this perfectly grand big table and let us arrange the place with literature and suffrage colors. Not a cent does it cost us."

WOW! SOME YARN.

Bryan Now Outside Not in Party Council

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—William J. Bryan, newspaper reporter from Nebraska, arrived here today to "cover" the Democratic national convention. He asserted most emphatically his reportorial will be his first interest. But one former secretary of state, chief builder of many Democratic platforms, including the one on which the party now stands, and author of numerous peace treaties, has a new treaty to propose to other Democratic leaders—a pact between the Democrats and Progressives to induce most of the Hull Moose to support the Democratic ticket next fall.

"I have no plans except to report this convention," he said.

Later Bryan made the following statement: "I have come to the convention as a newspaper correspondent and do not expect to take any official part in the convention. Having been defeated for delegate in my own state, I will not accept a seat on the floor of the convention as an alternate from Nebraska or accept a proxy from any other state."

us. "They wouldn't think of letting us pay for the rooms."

Prince's Address Is Not Verdun

"Not Arrived Yet," Writes French Censor

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Little realizing when they penned a postal to Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm of Germany, telling of their allegiance to the Fatherland, did a small group of Germans gathered at a San Francisco cafe several months ago expect to ever receive a reply. Today Edward Wintersell, 776 Hayes street, and one of the signers of the card, received the postal addressed to the crown prince at Verdun.

The small gathering in the Heidelberg Cafe, after singing their national anthems and discussing their viewpoint of the great strife going on in faraway Europe, decided to send the German crown prince a message. Writing the words "Go ahead, Fritz, we are all with you," the members of the party signed their signature.

Time passed on and the little incident was forgotten. Today written across the face of the postal were the words, "Has encore arrived a Verdun" (not yet arrived at Verdun), which came back to Wintersell in this city.

The message, having fallen into the hands of the allies, was in the course of time returned to the German senders. It bore the date of May 4, 1916.

'Count' Promises to Go to Work

Now Seeks Waiter's Job as Result

Frederick Condi, who became the husband of Fern Stansbury on March 1 because she believed him to be a count, taking his word for it, was released from prison today on his promise to Police Judge George Samuelson that he would go to work and pay his bills and support his wife. Condi is looking for a job as a waiter. "I thought he had money," sobbed the bride on the witness stand.

Then she explained that when she first met the impressive-looking Condi she took his word for it that he was a count, a member of one of the oldest families of the Italian nobility. They were wed. They lived at 2754 Garden street. But after a month—the count seemed to have no income, she explained—bill collectors began to be intimate with the front and rear doors. The count explained that his income had been cut off by the war.

Then one day he explained that he was a waiter. His bride suggested that he go to work, but, she testified, he was unable to see her viewpoint, so she had him arrested on a charge of non-support. After a week in the city jail he decided that he would rather wait on tables than wait on justice, so he is again at liberty.

Jobs Are for Young and Husky, Report

A report from the Oakland public woodyard, municipal lodging-house and employment bureau for the month of May says that there is an active demand for husky, able-bodied young men at moderate wages in this city, but that the employers expect this type of man to work for from 25 to 30 cents an hour, and do not desire the old, not very strong man, who is dependent upon odd jobs. W. S. Goodrich, superintendent of the bureau, reports that the receipts for the month amounted to $164, including $75.45 cash on hand, the remainder being secured through teaming and the sale of wood and coal. The total expenditure for the month was $694.21, says the report, and the income $718.31, leaving a balance on hand at the end of May amounting to $124.10.

Connelley Liquor Cure Alone Can Save You

The drinking HABIT, as everyone knows, is easily acquired. When a man has once tasted whiskey, the appetite for it grows and the habit becomes so firmly fixed that it is next to impossible to throw it off by an effort of the will. In fact, all medical authorities agree that the use of alcohol affects, directly, the will power, and makes resistance to the craving impotent. Temperance societies, noble though they may be in their purpose, exact pledges of abstinence from their converts, and the pledges, although made in good faith by the drunkard, are broken, in nine cases out of ten. Why? Simply because the will power is not strong enough to deny its craving for alcohol.

Drunkennes is a disease, not a habit. It must be treated as a disease, and it can no more be cured by moral suasion than a broken leg, a case of pneumonia, or a spell of typhoid fever. The drunkard may "sober up" for a month or a year, but everyone knows how sure the unfortunate who has relied upon his confidence in his own power to abstain, sooner or later falls into the old habit and is once more in the gutter. WHY? For the reason that the virus of the disease has not been eradicated from the system.

Man Drowned When Great Oil Wharf Burns

SEATTLE, Wash., June 13.—One man lost his life in a fire which destroyed the wharf at the Standard Oil Company's storage plant at Richmond Beach, fifteen miles north of Seattle late yesterday, causing a loss estimated at $50,000.

The fire was caused by the explosion of an oil drum on the wharf and quickly enveloped the structure in which were stored 1000 drums of oil. Three men who were working on the wharf were forced to jump into the water when the flames swept over the pier. James Farmer, one of the workmen, was drowned but the two other men succeeded in reaching shore.

For a time it was feared that the fire would spread to the huge oil tank in which thousands of barrels of fuel oil and gasoline are stored but the arrival of two fire boats from Seattle saved the storage tanks.

The explosion which started the fire in

Chicago Judges to Get Highest Salaries

CHICAGO, June 13.—Municipal judges in Chicago hereafter will be the highest paid judges of that class in the United States, it is said today, as the result of the passage by the city council of an ordinance raising the pay of judges hereafter elected 50 per cent over the salaries now paid. The incumbents received $3000 a year, while the new scale provides for a $3900 salary. The ordinance also provided that the chief justice receive an increase from $10,000 to $12,000.

The increases will cost the city $92,000 a year after they all become operative. There are thirty associate judges in the Municipal Court, of whom ten are elected every two years.

The ordinance was believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion.

MEXICO HAS POOR CROPS THIS YEAR

Industrial and Economic Conditions Reported to Be Serious.

EL PASO, Texas, June 13.—Several hundred Mexicans have arrived in Juarez in the last few days from points in Durango, asserting they were on their way to the United States to seek employment. They said all industries in the Torreon district are closed, and pointed out that the industrial and economic situation is the worst for years.

Reports from Sonora indicate a poor crop year, thus working a hardship on farmers, many of whom counted on harvesting their first crop in years. For weeks the state has been in the grip of a drought, water-holes drying up and range grass being robbed of its nutriment, causing cattle to die by the hundreds.

These reports are contradictory to Mexican City advices received at the local Mexican consulate, which report a general improvement throughout the republic in agricultural, industrial and economic conditions.

Arbitration Offered in Garment Strike

NEW YORK, June 13.—An offer by one association of manufacturers to enter into an arbitration of the present strike of more than 80,000 garment workers was made in a letter sent late yesterday to Benjamin Schlegel, president of the union and leader of the strikers, by counsel for the Mutual Cloth, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Association. The association suggested that an arbitration board be made up of two or three members of both the manufacturers' association and the garment workers' association, to be headed by a chairman appointed by Mayor Mitchell.

The striking garment workers still maintain pickets about the shops of manufacturers, 32,000 being on duty today. Eleven pickets were arrested for refusing to obey the orders of the police. An official of the Cloth, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Protective Association announced that 25 additional shops of the association resumed operations yesterday, making a total of 150 now at work.

UNIFORM ACCOUNTS FOR ALL COUNTIES

State Board of Control Is Installing New System.

Under the direction of John Francis Neelan, chairman of the State Board of Control, the accounting systems of Sacramento, Stanislaus, Glenn and San Diego counties will be systematized in the interest of uniform accounting throughout the state. It is stated as improbable that Alameda county, which has had its auditing and accounting system changed every two years for the past eight years, may adopt the state system. Los Angeles county has now been employing the system some ten months and reports the greatest satisfaction.

The system has been devised, advantage being taken of the wonderful work accomplished by the Commission on Efficiency and Accounting appointed by President Taft, also of the work of the New York and Philadelphia Commissions on Efficiency and Economy, also of very valuable data accumulated by the Bureau of Municipal Research of New York. With the aid afforded by the reports of these commissions the Board of Control accounting department made a thorough study of the laws governing county accounting in California and a survey of conditions prevailing in typical counties.

The Board of Control is constantly in receipt of requests from small municipalities and school districts to audit their accounts and systematize them. The Board of Control accounting staff is composed of twenty-one men; eleven of these are engaged on county auditing and systematizing and ten are engaged in the regular auditing of the twenty-three institutions and sixty State Departments.

The completion of the systematizing of the counties will mark California as the foremost state in the United States in the matter of bringing all major political subdivisions into an intelligent and business-like scheme of accounting.

Holland's War Bread Made Many Patients

THE HAGUE, June 13.—Holland's war bread, which has been in use for the last few weeks, will have to be changed. The Holland population says so, the physicians of Holland say so and the government is expected to agree.

Unlike the war bread of all other European countries, the Holland bread was made of flour which contained the husks of the wheat. Even the sturdy Dutch stomach was unable to endure the scrapings and scratchings of the wheat husks and shortly the physicians of Dutch cities and towns had a rush of patients whose digestive organs had gone wrong. The doctors quickly traced the trouble to the war bread.

MARINES GO TO DOMINGO.

NEW ORLEANS, June 13.—The transport Hancock called last night with about 700 marines for Santo Domingo to assist the American forces there in maintaining order. About 600 of the marines were brought here from the Pacific coast and the others were taken from the local naval station.

VALLEJO NOTES

VALLEJO, June 13.—The birth of the State and Stripes will be fittingly celebrated at the Flag Day services to be held under the auspices of Vallejo Lodge No. 559, B. P. O. Elks, at the Republic Theater on Wednesday evening of this week, the committee in charge of the affair having arranged a splendid program for the occasion.

The Flag Day oration will be delivered by Attorney Thomas B. Dozier of San Francisco, one of the most prominent speakers on the Pacific Coast, and his address is expected to be one of the big features of the occasion.

Dr. J. F. Chappell, the exalted ruler of the lodge, has spared no effort to make this year's Flag Day the most successful of any ever undertaken by the lodge and it is expected that the theater will be taxed to its capacity by members of the Elks and their friends.

Vallejo's Fourth of July parade will probably be the greatest pageant ever witnessed in this city, as Dr. Robert S. Dempsey, president of the Chamber of Commerce, today interviewed many of our citizens concerning the proposition of having a "Preparedness Parade" on Independence Day, it being the intention to join the parade of fully processed and the proposed preparedness parade into one pageant, which will eclipse anything ever attempted here. It is the intention to secure as many sailors, marines, officers and bands as possible and to have the navy yard men march.

According to unofficial reports the Mare Island Employers' Association is going to spend the sum of $14,000 in modernizing the ferry slip on the Vallejo side of the strait. It is expected that actual work will be started on the job during the coming month.

Miss Josephine Bowman, a popular Vallejo girl and daughter of Mr. N. E. Bowman, will be married to Professor F. L. Jackson the latter part of this month, according to an announcement made Monday. The bride-to-be is a graduate of the Vallejo High School and has many friends in this city. Professor Jackson was formerly attached to the Vallejo school department, but is now a member of the faculty at the Monterey High School.

Sutter Association Must Answer Suit

YUBA CITY, June 13.—Judge K. S. Mahon today overruled the demurrer of the Sutter Canned Fruit Association in the case of Jennie T. Olsen against the association. Twenty days were given the fruit organization in which to answer the complaint.

Mrs. Olsen is suing for $1,200 she claims is due her for raising. She contends she delivered $5,000 pounds of raisins to the company and failed to get pay for 25,000 pounds of them.

C. A. Wetmore of Marysville represents her.

200 Crippled Children Rescued as Home Burns

CLEVELAND, O., June 13.—Rainbow Cottage home of 200 crippled children at South Euclid, near here, caught fire at 2:30 o'clock this morning. A general alarm summoned aid from Cleveland.

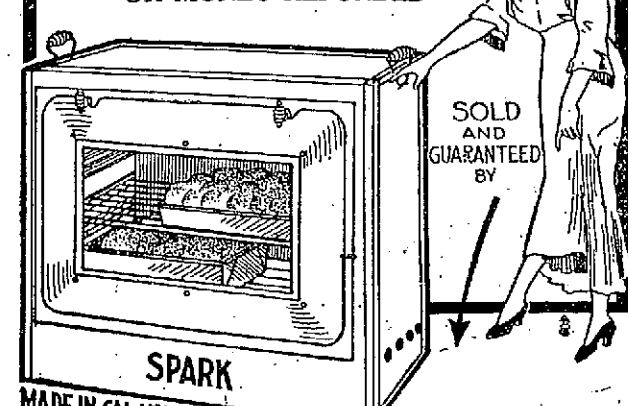

The fire started in a frame building 35 feet from the dormitory. The intense heat broke the windows and set the sills afire, forcing all to flee. All the children were carried to safety through the efforts of ten nurses.

Tax to Make Up for Liquor Loss, Illegal

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 13.—The Arkansas Supreme Court last night declared illegal the "occupation tax" which had been levied by the city of Hot Springs upon practically all lines of business. This was intended to make up the losses of revenue from saloon licenses as a result of the state-wide prohibition act which went into effect January 1. Little Rock has a similar ordinance, and the loss of revenue, it is feared, will be a financial blow to both cities.

LEGISLATION THAT HARMS IS TOPIC

Manufacturers' Committee of Chamber of Commerce to Meet.

"Agitation and Harmful Legislation" will be the topic to be discussed tomorrow before the Manufacturers' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce by State Senator George W. Cartwright at the noon luncheon in the Commercial Club grill.

Following the address a special meeting of the executive committee will be held to outline the plans for the "Try Oakland First" movement to be carried out as a home industry campaign by the chamber committees and the Merchants' Exchange.

Members of the Good Roads Committee and the Lincoln Highway Committee of the Chamber of Commerce met this morning with Commissioner of Public Works W. J. Baccus to discuss improvement by the city of hill roads within the Oakland limits. The Snake road, the Skyline boulevard and other roads were discussed in the session. Several more conferences on the matter are to be held.

Tonight the board of directors will meet to discuss routine business. Partial reports of the traffic committee and harbor committee are expected to be also given over. The building laws committee will meet tonight in the Commercial Club rooms, as will also the Furniture Dealers' Association.

NEW JINNY FIGHTER

SAN JOSE, June 13.—Track automobiles, or lightweight gasoline cars with steel track wheels, are to be used on suburban lines as opponents to the "jitneys." It was declared today by Frank M. Chapin of the Peninsula Railways. The trial trip of the first of these gasoline cars, in reality automobiles with car wheels, is declared a decided success.

CITY IS STOPPED; WOULD LAY RAILS

U. R. R. Wins Preliminary Point in Van Ness Crossing Argument.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Judge William C. Van Fleet in the federal court this morning granted to the United Railroads a temporary restraining order preventing the further construction of a rail crossing at Van Ness avenue and Market street. Attorney R. W. McEnery, one of the leaders of the California bar, appeared for the first time as counsel-in-chief for the United Railroads and was assisted by William M. Abbott.

Judge Van Fleet issued an order to show cause directed against the city and the hearing as to whether or not the permanent injunction shall be issued will be held Monday morning. The action of the United Railroads was to test the validity of the city's claim that it has the right to parallel the tracks of the United Railroads on Market street between Van Ness avenue and Church street. It is desired to connect the Municipal Railway on Van Ness with the new Church street line and the right of the city will have to be determined in the court.

Ice Skating Rink to Cost $150,000

According to an announcement by John Tait and M. J. Loewenthal of San Francisco, that city is to have a new ice skating rink at the corner of Sutter and Pierce streets, which will be the largest pavilion west of Chicago. Work will begin at once on the rink and it is expected to be completed by the middle of September.

The ice floor will be larger than the regular hockey rinks occupying a floor space of 210 by 80 feet. The building itself will be 375 by 144 feet and the enterprise will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000.

SCOTT URGES ALL FOR PATRIOTISM

Los Angeles Man Talks to Members of Chamber of Commerce.

Preparedness, patriotism and co-operation were the keynotes of an address last night and one yesterday at noon by Joseph Scott of Los Angeles, who, before the Chamber of Commerce membership council at noon and before a meeting held in the Auditorium theater at night, discussed issues of the day.

The meeting at the Hotel Oakland was the regular session of the membership council, Scott being the guest of honor. His topic dealt purely with the co-operation of business men to aid the nation and their city. The evening talk, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, took on a wider scope. He urged the public at large to co-operate, forget all differences, and work for a greater and more grand nation, an example of freedom and the light of reason to the warring nations of Europe.

URGES CO-OPERATION. Scott's address in the Auditorium theater was a powerful plea to all creeds and nationalities to forget their differences in America and join together for the common good.

"Creed," he declared, "makes no difference among the great Catholics and Protestants fought side by side at Gettysburg and are fighting side by side in the trenches—Lutherans and Bavarian Catholics, French and English—for the cause they think is right. In Los Angeles two little French priests came to bid me goodbye. They were going to the war. 'Why?' I asked. 'Whom?' 'France expel you priests? And now you go back to fight.'"

"Yes," they said, "the French government expelled us. We are not going back to aid the government. It is for France, our country, that we would die!"

"It is declared that we cannot be patriotic and members of our faith," Gettysburg answered that, "the war in Europe today answers that."

"The spirit coming over the country today is a healthy one. Let the Puritan's descendants quit thinking themselves the only shiners pure Americans. Take the Irish, the German, the Frenchman, and hail them as fellow-Americans. We must have that—and all are Americans in that spirit—then we can go back to understand first allegiance, and the hyphen will not be a stigma. The hyphen should be a bond to draw together the nations, to make the blood stronger in the free air of America. The day is coming when, more than ever before, we shall need that spirit."

"If Europe can hold wide of race in time of war, cannot we be bound by it in time of peace. We are of one blood."

Makes Plea for Civic Co-operation

Preaching a sermon of general co-operation of citizens for the good of the community, through the Chamber of Commerce, Scott yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce membership council luncheon voiced a plea for not only a local, but a nation-wide spirit of co-operation.

"Never more than now," he declared, "did the United States need a national public opinion, free from partisanship. Public sentiment above the lunch counter is the need of today—a national public sentiment vibrant of the patriotism of Americans. Not from the poor devil on the soap box, but the sentiment of men successful in business and in the nation—the men who liberate by their own freedom."

OPPORTUNITY. "Did you ever think of the opportunity facing us—an opportunity never before seen in the history of the nation? When the war is over—when brothers quit slaying brothers, and shake, as neighbors; when they come into the great international councils, ready again to fight, there should be a strong brotherly sentiment to stop them; to say, 'Here! boys, there's a way out of this! Under our flag the children of all nations are merged; and it by that time national public sentiment is strong enough, don't you think Europe will wait for America's message?'"

"So I say the Chamber of Commerce should foster not only cold business, but patriotism."

The public sentiment for good, as shown by the Chamber of Commerce, the speaker declared, was further shown in the United States Chamber of Commerce, in the growth of which he declared he saw a promise of the ideals of which he spoke.

"It's a good thing to feel that the city you are living in is the best place on earth," he declared. "When a man stops thinking that his wife is about the best woman on earth, look out! There is trouble coming. And after the family and the country—what comes next? Why, the city you live in! If Los Angeles is more than a pueblo it is because of that feeling—we let people know Los Angeles is the best place in the world—tell them not only at home, in the street cars, the hotel and on the street—but tell them so hundreds of miles away."

REGISTRATION. "I knew an Oakland man who registered in Europe as from San Francisco. He said if he registered from Oakland no one would know where he came from! 'Good heavens!' I exclaimed, 'if you don't put your city on the map who will?'"

"The Chamber of Commerce must build a great body in which men meet, irrespective of politics, creeds or any differences, to concentrate on one thing—the good of the city at large. Then it's voice will be listened to. Los Angeles voted the aqueduct, because the Chamber of Commerce educated the people to it. The same vote cut out the Gut of Honor. He told of the work of the Detroit chamber and what it had done for that city. Postmaster J. J. Rosborough presided.

ROBBERS BEAT MAN. SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Leo Fong, a Chinese merchant at 733 Sacramento street, attacked by two countrymen in the hallway of his home, successfully fought off their efforts to rob him and finally fled to the street with blood pouring from multiple lacerations of the scalp. Just as officers of the Chinatown squad approached Leo swooned into unconsciousness and his assailants escaped. Leo's watch and considerable money were saved and he was taken to the harbor hospital for treatment.

OAKS OPEN HERE AGAINST BLANK'S BUSY LITTLE BEES

"Speed" Martin May Not Be Able to Work This Week, But Surely Next.

The Oaks are here for a two week stay, playing the Salt Lake Bees this week and the Los Angeles club next week. They have been strengthened to some extent with the addition of Irvie Hinklebottom, but Rowdy is still looking for some more twirlers.

It is doubtful whether Speed Martin will be back in the team this week, but it is almost certain that he will turn on the mound in the series against the Angels.

The San Francisco club is going to present a season pass to some person who will give them a good idea of how to celebrate the raising of the pennant that the Seals won last year. Irvie Berry yesterday decided that the date for the flag-raising would be on June 25 when the old rivals, the Oaks and Seals, battle. We suggest that they celebrate it the usual way in Oakland.

The Seals departed for the South where they will stay for two weeks, meeting the Angels this week and the Tigers next week. Jack Dalton will be back in right field and Wolverton will have another good twirl at his disposal in Curley Brown.

CHIT Blankenship is well pleased with the way Quigley, former St. Mary's College lad, handles himself around second base. CHIT secured him in a trade for Edmond. He thinks that Quigley is just the man he has been looking for to fill in at second. Quigley is not a heavy hitter but he takes a nice cut at the ball.

Vernon took a trip to Portland last week and will try to regain some of the ground they lost last week to the Seals. As Portland is a second division team Ham Patterson is figuring on taking the big end of the series.

Bill Prough probably will be the man that will be used against the Seals today. CHIT pitched last Friday's game against the Beavers and got away to a 4-3 victory and he may repeat for Elliott today.

Reading the Green. Yesterday's hero in the big leagues was Cornelius of the Indians. He roared and the other clubs took on and none down and fanned Oldring, Schalk and Steinbauer in succession.

Manager Rowland threw in the high speed and told the White Sox to go to it. They did. White Sox 3, Senators 0.

A boner by Becher of the Cards, when he grasped a fly ball with his finger and threw it into the stands, gave the Dodgers a run in the sixth.

It took the heat out of the bunch from the Mount City and Brooklyn had it soft.

Cobb started a little campaign to crowd Tim Spunkier for batting honors. The Tiger started out with a double and a homer against the Yankees and on top of that scored three runs.

Rule Book Will Be Given Much-Needed Overhauling A Few Plays in Baseball That Still Cause Needless Argument

The rule book is to have a thorough overhauling by the National League officials, says President John E. Tener, and a meeting will be held shortly by the magnates and umpires to alter and revise part of the playing end of the game. In the majority the playing rules are safe and sound, but there are a few, as President Tener says, that need dusting, because almost every day there is a play that causes an argument.

SAME RULES TO REMAIN. The simple rules will not be changed. A drive that lands inside of the left and right field foul lines will continue to be a fair hit, and the pitcher will be allowed to throw the ball to the first base line and home and third and home and remain there, is a fair hit.

There is a rule which we always have insisted was wrong because the fundamental part of the game is that a ball which strikes on foul territory cannot be a fair hit. It is argued that a fair hit to be a fair hit must start on fair territory and run inside of the first base line, but the rule is that a ball which strikes on foul territory and is picked up before reaching the bags is a fair hit.

UMPS SWITCH IN DECISIONS. This rule is not uniform, and a bit of it. We have seen bunts hit to the foul side of the plate, roll to the pitcher and the umpire call it a fair hit. On the same sort of a hit we have heard the umpires call it a foul. In baseball it is not a fair hit, but one way, however, the umpires frequently have called them differently in one game.

It is our contention that a ball cannot be a fair hit unless it starts first on fair territory. If a ball that starts foul then moves to fair and is a fair hit, it is a fair hit. If a ball that starts fair then moves to foul and is a foul hit, it is a foul hit.

As the wording of this rule goes, a bunt hit to the foul side of the plate, roll to the pitcher and the umpire call it a fair hit. On the same sort of a hit we have heard the umpires call it a foul. In baseball it is not a fair hit, but one way, however, the umpires frequently have called them differently in one game.

BLANKENSHIP AND TOM HUGHES ARE FIGURED IN THIS

Present Salt Lake Members and Ex-Oak Experienced an Odd Incident.

When to change pitcher and when not to is one of the most perplexing problems that confronts a manager in the heat of a close battle. Occasions arise in tight combats when the circumstances call for a change, and yet the manager is going so good that it seems a shame to take him out.

Sometimes the desired end can be obtained by simply shifting the pitcher to the outfield, and then bringing him back to the box after the crisis is past. However, this is an expedient so seldom resorted to by a manager that the average fan probably does not realize that it is permitted by the rules. There is really no limit to the number of times that a man may be switched on the diamond during the progress of the game, although there can be no tampering with the batting order.

Tom Hughes once passed through the novel experience of being yanked out of the box for the space of a couple of minutes, and then returned to the mound. The incident was yesterday recalled by Blankenship, who, with Hughes, was a member of the Washington Club at the time. On that particular day Blank was handling Tom's delivery. Along about midway of the pastime, Chicago got a runner on first with nobody out. Joe Cantillon, the Washington manager, was seized with a sudden dread that the man and first might develop into what would prove to be the winning run. On a sudden and startling move, he yanked out the right fielder, sent Hughes from the box to right field and ordered Oscar Graham on to the mound. Graham formerly was with Oakland, and veteran Coast League fans will recall his batting move to first base. Cantillon's instructions to Graham were not to pitch any balls to the batter, but to make three attempts to catch the runner at first. Hughes did as instructed, and on his third throw to first nipped his man. Hughes was immediately recalled to the box, and a utility man sent into right field.

Blankenship later tried the same experiment in the Union Association, and was rewarded with a victory. Hughes spring the same trick in the Coast League one of these fine days.

Under the Calcium Tomorrow Night

WILLIAM L'HEUREUX, Oakland's amateur heavyweight champion, who will make his debut in the local four-round game tomorrow night at West Oakland.

Hendricks Will Meet L'Heureux Tomorrow Night

Parente Finally Succeeds In Mussing Simpsonian Card

The boxing promoters are still engaged in the pleasant occupation of cutting one another's throat. Louis Parente, who has been successful in putting Charles Miller of tomorrow night's card at West Oakland, compelling Promoter Tommy Simpson to substitute Sallor Hendricks, a swarting Swede, who has already been in the Brooklyn Federal League for his losing the Meekins-McAllister match. It appears that Miller's home is mortgaged to a member of the Parente family, and that the latter is unable to dislodge the San Francisco pirate. Of course the promoters blame the blame on the other side.

This "dog-in-the-manger" policy will surely mean the end of boxing in California unless speedy steps are taken to eliminate unscrupulous managers and jealous promoters.

WANTS CARD HIMSELF. Parente, who has been successful in putting Charles Miller of tomorrow night's card at West Oakland, compelling Promoter Tommy Simpson to substitute Sallor Hendricks, a swarting Swede, who has already been in the Brooklyn Federal League for his losing the Meekins-McAllister match. It appears that Miller's home is mortgaged to a member of the Parente family, and that the latter is unable to dislodge the San Francisco pirate. Of course the promoters blame the blame on the other side.

Though the appearance of L'Heureux Wednesday night is naturally the "big noise" around boxing headquarters, the fans are not overlooking the Frankie Malone-Johnny Arroyo bout which will also take place. The fans are easily the cream of all the featherweights on the Coast and the winner will be rightfully crowned the Pacific Coast champion. Each had holds a decision over each other, while the pair have also engaged in a draw. Tomorrow's contest will be the deciding one and the fans drive to see both boys mixing matters hard from bell to bell. Martin Cronin, Jack Brown and W. J. Eyre will officiate as judges tomorrow evening, while Lou Bernstein will act as timer and Gerald Beaumont will referee.

Hendricks is not new to local fans. He appeared at the East Oakland Club about a month ago, beating a big "white hope" named John Shoving. Hendricks made an excellent showing in this bout, and he is expected to give a good account of himself when he meets L'Heureux. The fact that Hendricks will appear in place of Miller will not hurt the show in the least. It is only a matter of time before a chance of seeing L'Heureux pressed all the harder, for Bill will have to display

M'ALLISTER NOT TO TAKE TRIP TO AUSTRALIA

Bob Cancels Trip to Vindicate Himself by Beating Meehan.

Bob McAllister, former Olympic Club mixer, who was to have sailed for Australia on the steamer Sierra this morning with Jack Brown, where he had five matches scheduled, two with Les Darcy, world's middleweight champion, is going to delay his trip to the Antipodes for a month or so, and has decided to stay in the hands of the local fans. Rather than take the five matches, which would have easily net McAllister between twenty and thirty thousand dollars and possibly the championship of the world, a goal which every boxer hopes to attain, McAllister has decided to stay in the hands of the local fans. SACRIFICED LOT OF COIN. "There is a boat sailing near the close of this month," said Bob. "I have made up my mind to take that one and in the mean time give Willie Meehan a good thrashing. I beat Meehan when only a 'green' kid, just out of the amateur ring, three years ago, and I know I can do it again. I wouldn't be overlooking this Australian trip and the financial inducements which it would net me if I was not sure I could lick him."

15 OAKLANDERS QUALIFY AS MARKSMEN AT FORT BARRY

Shooters of This City Display Excellent Form in Regular Government Shoot.

Of the twenty-nine Oakland Rifle Club shooters participating in the classification match at Fort Barry Sunday fifteen qualified under Government rating as "marksmen."

The course was fired under the new National Rifle Association rating requiring magazine fire at disappearing targets, and other "stunt" shooting tending toward conditions more analogous to actual battle practice. Under instructions of Lieutenant Frazier and Sergeant Allison of the Coast Artillery, and Executive Officer C. W. Cox of the Oakland Rifle Club the Oakland riflemen have shown themselves decidedly apt.

The following marksmen are now eligible to compete for sharpshooters' ratings at the next monthly shoot:

CHICAGO WINS IN TENNIS SINGLES

CHICAGO, June 12. — A. Lindauer of the University of Chicago yesterday won the western intercollegiate conference singles tennis championship from Becker of the University of Illinois in straight sets, on the Chicago courts. The set scores were 6-3, 6-1 and 6-3.

The contest has been postponed a number of times on account of rain since the conference tennis meet was played recently when all events but the singles were completed.

Tennis By Nelson G. Welburn

In a 53-game match fought with many exciting rallies, Arthur O'Kane succeeded in vanquishing the second class singles honors of the Oakland Tennis Club by defeating Edwin Otis in the final round in a five-set match by the score of 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 4-4, 4-3. The pace was set by the players playfully left its marks on both. Otis in the latter stages of the fight sought relief through restoratives but was not sufficiently revitalized to combat the storming tactics of O'Kane.

Otis took the first set through untimely backhand swipes which cut the baseline with deadly speed and accuracy. O'Kane in rushing in to meet the returns would time after time fail to get his racket within reaching distance. Otis took his set by 4-4. O'Kane in the second set broke through Otis' defense by topping his service and returns to such an extent that Otis found the house of cards under his backhand maneuver. O'Kane also held to the more firmly and put his opponent on the defensive by such tactics. O'Kane took the set by 6-4 after Otis held the lead by 4-3.

Rushing into the net and taking advantage of every opening, Otis carried the third set after a stubborn rally by 6-4. He put plenty of pep in his returns and aggressively fought for every point. O'Kane featured his work in this by spectacular overhead smashing. From mid-court he punished Otis' lobs with terrific severity. At that, though, he lost out.

In the fourth set Otis practically had the set clinched, having game score 5-1, point match three times, but failed of victory through the admirably tenacity displayed by O'Kane. With two sets apiece now up both players addressed themselves to their task with resolute care and less speed in the fifth set. Both had good chances to clinch the game before it reached the fourteen-game score, but in their great anxiety to clinch the point would invariably lose it away by being too careful. O'Kane practically attained his win through allowing himself to take chances in the face of seemingly defeat.

With O'Kane's win of the second class event the Oakland Tennis Club finished one of the best class single events in the history of the club. The winners are: Arthur O'Kane, third class, Leroy Johnson.

ED WALSH AND JOHNSON TANGLE TO-DAY

CHICAGO, June 12. — Ed Walsh will start against Walter Johnson in today's Sox-Senators game at the South Side park. It being Walsh's first game this season, and the first time the two pitchers have faced each other in three years. Walsh has been warming up in good shape for the last few days and has been showing old time form in pitching to his teammates.

Manager Clarence Rowland thinks that Walsh is ready to start and is sending him to the box to try to break Johnson's losing streak. The Senators have won but one of the 11 games they have played since leaving home and Johnson is credited with that.

The White Sox have contributed three straight losses to the Washington team's growing string in the last three days.

SHOOTERS TIE WITH SCORE OF 199

GRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 12. — With 199 perfect shots each out of a possible 200, George Burke and R. H. Rahr of Colorado Springs yesterday tied for first place for the Spelling medal in the Rocky Mountain Sportsmen's Association tournament. In the shoot-off Burke won with 17 hits to Rahr's 16.

Other high scores of the day for money prizes in the next event included: George R. Burke, Denver, 193; R. A. King, Denver, 190; W. H. Rahr, Colorado Springs, 190; W. H. Rahr, Victor, 180; R. P. Hinkle, Denver, 180.

The shoot-off will take place today.

HERE'S PRIZE WINNING ANSWER

The TRIBUNE's recent query as to "What was the matter with the Oaks?" produced many interesting replies. Some of the best were sent under anonymous signatures and therefore could not be considered. Many of them showed a conscientious effort to answer the riddle and a genuine appreciation of the club's troubles. The sporting editor has selected the following as giving the briefest and most pointed summary of the consensus of opinion:

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE OAKS?

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE:

Here's your answer:

One—Team unbalanced; therefore erratic.

Two—Present manager in no position to rebuild his club. Too much harassed and occupied by everyday worries.

Three—Club lacks speed, reliable pitching, and aggressiveness in attack (inside baseball).

If I were manager:

One—I'd chase a capable scout

East at once and keep him there;

use a Trotsky League club as farm for young players, and devote considerable effort to securing a good southpaw.

Two—Kenworthy, an erratic man on ground balls, I would put in left field, and use Berger at second, thus improving my infield defense and increasing the building power of the outfield. I would instruct my scout to keep a first second baseman and a third baseman.

Three—I would manage from the bench and devote considerable time to careful study of the players off and on the field.

Five—Establish relations with a major league club.

There is nothing mysterious about the persistent slump of the Oaks. They were blessed by luck when they won the pennant in 1912. Those things happen occasionally. Now they have to build from the ground up, and need a man at the helm who has experience in building clubs.

Sincerely,

JACK ROBINSON,

120 CROXTON AVENUE, OAKLAND.

P. S.—If this wins you can give the beer to some charitable cause.

EASTERN CREWS ARE ROUNDING TO FORM

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 12. — The practice work of the Syracuse crew was so satisfactory yesterday that Coach James Ten Eyck announced there would be no more changes in his crew. This announcement means that Port will remain as to bow out of the Syracuse Junior crew.

Examinations were being held at the Cornell quarters again yesterday and may continue until next Friday. The Cornell crew had a nine mile row on the lower course yesterday afternoon.

The Pennsylvania crew had mild practice, being the last crew on the river, paddling about six miles at easy paces.

BOHEM ALLOWS ONE HIT.

The Bay Point aggregation went down to defeat at the hands of the fast Brentwood team Sunday by the score of 3-1. Bohem did the mound work for Brentwood in grand shape, making an envious record for himself. Nineteen of the Bay Pointers were retired via the strike-out route and only one scored hit and one run were scored, off him. The lone tally was put across in the ninth on an error of Rightfielder Wallace with two down. Baigalupi caught Bohem in the shape area for a wild pitch on the base. Dignan, L'Houren and Rich Wallace showed in well with the stick, gathering a two-bagger each besides a single. Murchio pitched a good game for Bay Point, but his support was poor.

Struck out by Bohem, 19; by Murchio, 7. Batteries — Brentwood, Bohem and Baigalupi; Bay Point, Murchio and Dornan.

RESTA AND DE PALMA TO RACE.

CHICAGO, June 12. — Dario Resta and Ralph de Palma, who fought a close race Sunday for first place in the second annual International Automobile derby, yesterday signed names for a race between themselves next Sunday at Speedway park. The distance is set for three heats of 10, 24 and 50 miles.

BENNY LEONARD OUT-FIGHTS DUNDEE

NEW YORK, June 12. — Coolly and skillfully evading the but-like rushes and airplane attack of his opponent, which in the earlier rounds threatened to overcome him, Benny Leonard out-fought and out-generalized Johnny Dundee at the Madison Square Garden last night. Leonard weighed in at 135, Dundee at 127.

PREATORIAN VICTORIOUS AGAIN.

This Modern ruler of Practitioners of Rust took a one sided game from South City by a score of 13 to 1. The Rust boys certainly made the Southerners sit up and take notice, the features of the game were the pitching of our old friend, Andy Jackson, who only allowed two hits in the nine innings. How Rainier Beer Benefits

Many people do not realize the food value of Rainier Beer. Do you? Do you know that Rainier Beer nourishes, soothes, livens and cleanses the body as no other beverage does? Do you know that its malt is a food partly digested and most easily assimilated? Do you know its hops are a tonic quieting to over-wrought nerves? Do you know that its small per cent of alcohol assists digestion? Do you know that its liquid washes away clogging waste?

All These Things Are True

Your Doctor Will Tell You So!

Beer is good for both the sick and the well. Doctors prescribe it for those who are weak and "run down." The inhabitants of the most healthy and progressive nations of the world drink beer.

FANS CORNER

To the Sporting Editor, My solution for the problem of "What's the Matter With the Oaks?" is answered in my solution to the difficulties that now face the club.

First, procure John Sanzoli, late manager of the Buffalo Bats. He has been a major league player for many years. Sanzoli took the Rochester club of the International club, which for years had been a losing club, and in one year made them into a pennant winner. Sanzoli is at present a free agent.

Otto Knabe, whom I think is also a free agent, would make a valuable addition to the Oak lineup. Otto could act as field captain and play at his regular position, second base. With the addition of Grandlell to the pitching staff, I think that the Oaks would need nothing more.

Here is the lineup I would suggest: Barry 1b, Knabe 2b, Davis 3b, Barbeau 4b, Kenworthy, Gardner and Cook, outfield. Behind the plate, I would put Elliott and F. Elliott, catchers; pitchers, Prough, Knabitter, Higginbotham, Martin, Grandlell and Boyd.

Lofti, June 9, 1916.
To the Sporting Editor, In answer to that question "What's the matter with the Oaks?" I think that the whole trouble lies with the ownership of the Oaks. Our little manager is just as good as any in the P. C. L. and the same may be said of the team, but Oakland will never have a winning club while it is owned as it is at present.

How many managers has the Oakland club had since Ed Walter owned the club? How many good ball players have refused to play for us just because there were too many bosses? The same trouble that befell Art Taylor, Tyler Christman and Hennes Miltz will be encountered by any other man who seeks to fill their shoes. Jack Ross showed his wisdom by declining the job, or he would have been out of work today.

Well, I hope this letter will do some good and strike the right cord, not for the 15 in it but for the sake of the Oaks. I will say again as I have said for two years, a change in ownership instead of management is needed to make the team a winner. I thank you.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS OPEN CONVENTION

Election Promises Lively Contest Before Grand Parlor Sessions.

FRESNO, June 13.—First business sessions of the thirtieth annual grand parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, opened in the Municipal Auditorium today. Delegates were still arriving and it was predicted more than 300 would be on hand. The election of officers, scheduled for Thursday, is attracting great interest, there being several candidates for every position.

Mayor Snow welcomed the delegates and Margaret Grote Hill of San Francisco, grand president, replied. At the conclusion of the session Margaret Grote Hill will become junior past grand president and Mamie Pierce Corns of San Jose will automatically be made grand president.

The four candidates for the vice-presidency are Emma Borman Wright Jackson, Mary E. Bell, San Francisco; Grace E. Storrman, Los Angeles; and Amy McAvoy, Pittsburg. In the campaign for grand marshal are Addie Mosher, Oakland, and Anna Lange, Oakland.

The convention's grand ball tonight will be attended by hundreds, two thousand invitations having been issued. A resolution to establish a $5000 scholarship at Mills College is before the convention. Another resolution opening the organization to women not born in this state, it is predicted, will meet strong opposition.

Ball Fans Guests at Kisich Banquet

Allen T. Baum, president of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, John P. Cook, manager of the Oaks, Superior Judge William S. Wells, Commissioner Harry Anderson, James Potter of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company and twenty-five others were guests at a banquet given last evening by P. Kisich, Oakland restaurant man. The occasion was the eighteenth anniversary of Kisich's establishment in business. A feature of the meal was a chest of drawers raised by J. Cal Ewing and sent down for the occasion, and a mass of tobacco.

Those present were Dr. W. H. Halsey, Judge William S. Wells, Charles B. Mills, Attorney Edward Elinson, Devere McCaren, J. J. Donovan, George Dickie, William A. Curtis, W. L. Macdonald, W. W. Keith, A. Waresgold, James Potter, Robert Henninger, William Cross, J. Jackson, Fred Anderson, Edward Meynel, J. B. Coos, George Helms, Harry Bridgman, Edward Bridgman, Allen Baum, John P. Railroad Managers Face Union Deadlock

NEW YORK, June 13.—The conference of railroad managers and officials of railroad men's unions representing about 350,000 employees looked perilously near a deadlock today. This was the result of the application of what the men called a "yard stick" to their demands. In this the yardstick officials declared that time paid for under one rule is not to be paid for under another rule or rules.

This proposal was regarded so unfavorably by officials of the unions that A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, the chief spokesman for the employees said:

"It does not look at all promising for a continuation of this conference."

Lincoln's Aide Now Sells Perfume

Bernhardt, in Chicago, Cousin of Sarah

CHICAGO, June 13.—Maurice Bernhardt, first cousin to the world's greatest actress, Sarah Bernhardt, lives today by himself in a dingy rooming-house in North Chicago. He is 32 years old, nine years older than the "divine Sarah."

Bernhardt is a hero of the Civil war. His ancestors served under Napoleon. His father was, in his time, the most prominent couturier in Paris.

Maurice Bernhardt came to America as courier of the French Ambassador Lascazes in 1870. Some years later Bernhardt was appointed official interpreter by President Lincoln. Maurice speaks nine languages—English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Dutch, Yiddish, Portuguese and Flemish.

At the outbreak of the Civil war Maurice joined the Union forces and was appointed first lieutenant of the cruiser Kearsarge.

He was assistant in command on the memorable cruise which resulted, after two years, in the sinking of the Confederate raider Alabama off the coast of Cherbourg.

After six years in the navy Bernhardt was given his honorable discharge.

He lost a small fortune in New York in the petroleum business, then came to Chicago. He eked out his existence here by the sale of perfume.

His $30 pension quarterly goes to the maintenance of his son's three children in an orphan asylum.

Bernhardt has not heard from his cousin Sarah since the war ended. Before the war they were in constant communication.

Grande Wants Charter Like San Francisco's

J. H. Grande submitted a letter to the City Council today condemning the municipal government as generally defective. He suggests that a new charter be adopted, similar to that under which San Francisco is governed. His letter was placed on file without being read to the council.

The council set June 22 as the date for the receipt of bids for the supplying of electrical power and light to the public buildings and municipal dredgers of the city. Final passage was given an ordinance introduced by Commissioner Jackson creating three new positions for sanitary inspectors in the city. They will receive annual salaries of $1200 each.

GREECE VIRTUALLY SUBMITS TO ALLIES

Entire Army Demobilized; Rumania Will Join With Ententes.

ATHENS, June 13.—King Constantine decided today to order the complete demobilization of the Greek army.

The demobilization of the Greek army follows the blockade of the ports of Greece by the allies and the placing of an embargo on Greek ships in British and French ports. The steps were taken as a result of the occupation of Greek fortresses in Macedonia by Bulgaria at the end of May. The allies were aroused by negotiations which were opened with Bulgaria and Germany by Premier Skouloudis and on June 9 the British government announced that steps would be taken to prevent Greece from providing the central powers with supplies. The blockade was the result, and on June 10 King Constantine ordered the twelve senior classes of the army to be demobilized.

The decision of King Constantine virtually means Greece's submission to the allies. It virtually gives the entente power to land troops on Greek soil, to use Greek railroad lines and Greek ports for the transportation of troops, and insures the fact, though not active, participation by Greece in the land and sea operations of the allies against Austria, Germany and their allies.

LONDON, June 13.—The prospect of Rumania joining the allies in the war against the central powers is growing daily with the advance of the Russian armies into Bukovina, according to reports in diplomatic circles here.

Boy Scouts' Cooking Starts Grass Fire

Boy scouts, who are trained to prevent fires, caused one which threatened a number of palatial residences in the vicinity of Ocean View Drive and the Cross Roads last night. An encampment of Boy Scouts in a vacant lot decided that it was dinner time late in the afternoon, and a fire was started that became out of control.

The fire got beyond their control, and the fire department spent an hour in extinguishing the flames, which spread through the dry grass and incensed surrounding homes. Hugh H. Harris, 6147 Ocean View Drive, and Thomas Wilkenson, two of the young scouts, were reprimanded for their share in the adventure.

ADMIRAL JELLICO PRAISES HIS MEN

Head of British Navy Issues an Official Statement of Sea Fight.

LONDON, June 13.—In a message to the men of the British fleet, which was given on here officially last night, Admiral Jellicoe expressed high appreciation of the manner in which the ships of the fleet had fought during the Jutland sea fight on May 31. The statement says:

"At this stage, when full information is unavailable, it is impossible to enter into details, but quite sufficient is known for me to state definitely that the glorious traditions handed down to us by generations of gallant seamen were most worthily upheld. Weather conditions that were highly unfavorable, the risk of the complete victory expected by all ranks. Our losses were heavy. We miss many most gallant comrades. But although it is difficult to obtain accurate information as to the enemy's losses, we have no doubt we shall find they were not less than our own. Sufficient information already has been received for me to make that statement with confidence."

"I hope to give the fleet fuller information on this point at an early date. I do not wish to delay appreciation of the work of the fleet and my confidence in a future complete victory."

"The wonderful spirit and fortitude of the wounded fills me with the greatest admiration. I am more proud than ever of the honor of commanding the fleet manned by such officers and men."

Boy Cashes Check, But Is Missing With Coin

Silver spoons worth $3.50 were stolen from the home of F. L. Honnet, 271 New York avenue, by burglars who entered the place last night. A pickpocket robbed Frank Karasson, 1032 Forty-fourth avenue, of a purse containing $88 on a Monday train today. Another pickpocket who piles his trade on street cars relieved Eddie Myerson of $24 Twelfth street of a gold watch and $75 in coin, while Ike Cohn of 334 Thirtieth street, John $50 through the same agency. "The operation of this office, as disclosed in the maintenance of its records, its effective control of the various departments of the city, and the excellence with which its auditing functions are performed, are conducted with a commendable degree of accuracy and efficiency."

"In installing the new system of accounting, which took effect July 1, 1915, the auditor's office has shown the same care and the satisfactory way in which the work has been kept up and the influence displayed in meeting the new conditions, deserves special commendation."

Mrs. Tevis to Give Testimony at Bedside

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—After unavailing efforts to bring Mrs. Mabel Tevis, wife of William S. Tevis, one of the incorporators of the United Properties Company, into court to answer a suit for judgment brought by J. Voron for $3700, the court will go to her. At the last hearing of the case, a note was presented to Superior Judge Frank Murdick from Mrs. Tevis' physician, stating that she was ill and would be unable to appear.

"If Mrs. Tevis is unable to come to the court," said Judge Murdick, "then the court will go to her." This afternoon Maurice Jackson will go to the Tevis residence in room 110, Van Ness street and take testimony in the case.

Magee Asks Court to Allow Stock Sale

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Receiving an offer several years ago to sell 28,322 shares of stock of the Western Pacific Railroad at $16 a share and which was in due turn refused by the receiver-ship committee of the defunct California Safe Deposit and Trust Company today through De Los Magee, receiver of the banking company, application was made to Superior Judge Jackson to sell the same stock for $397.75.

Magee asked the court to ratify the sale of the stock of 1600 shares at five cents a share and 27,522 shares at three cents. The bank committee three years ago asked $12 for the same stock.

Manipulate Police Bureau, Is Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Charging that the "White Slave" bureau operated under the direction of Detective Sergeant Thomas Furman was not on "the square" and intimating that its members were open to bribes, Attorney Charles Perry today declared that the charges against Ben E. Berger under the Mann Act, were a "frame up" to reflect on the testimony of the defendant, who is a witness in Saratoga at a murder trial. Following the admission of testimony, the case was dismissed by Judge Timothy Fitzpatrick.

Albert Lindstrom last evening entertained an audience, composed of representatives of the Great Western Power Company Bay Section of the National Electric Light Association, with experiments in "High Tension Phenomena," using the experimental transformer exhibited last year at the Exposition.

Another feature of the evening's program was a paper by John A. Koonis Jr., accompanied with motion pictures of the laying of a cable across San Francisco Bay.

The motor car thieves are still busy. Julius Cohn, of 562 Minnesota boulevard, is the latest victim of the organized band which is operating throughout the state. He told the police today that his $5000 car had been stolen from Fourteenth and Alice streets last night.

MORE ASPIRANTS OUT FOR COUNCIL

Doctor Higgins Would Even Scores With Commissioner Jackson.

Today brought forth two more aspirants for the office now held by Commissioner F. F. Jackson, who will oppose him in the recall election on Tuesday, August 1. Dr. R. M. Higgins, who was City Health Officer under Dr. Jackson and who resigned following trouble with his superior, announced his candidacy, and H. C. Tuck, the blind Socialist, told City Clerk L. W. Cummings that a representative of the party would be in the race for the office.

This brings the total of those who have positively announced candidacies to five. J. H. Grande, Walter H. Creighton, Edwin Meese and Dr. Higgins have all taken out nomination papers, and the Socialists will soon announce the name of their candidate. Dr. Higgins and Creighton are members of the Taxpayers' League, the executive committee of which has endorsed Meese's candidacy. School Director Harry L. Borie and Brian Director Charles Sonntag, whose names have been mentioned as possible candidates, have not yet asked for nomination petitions.

Dr. Higgins, in a statement issued today, declaring himself a candidate, makes the rather unique declaration that "the time-worn practice of hiding one's desire for office by telling of the thousands urging his candidacy does not apply in my case." He then explains that he wants the office because he disagrees with Commissioner Jackson, and for that reason has announced himself as a candidate.

City Will Improve Lincoln Highway

Commissioner W. J. Baccus of the department of streets and Street Superintendent Perry P. Brown, assured a committee of the Lincoln Highway Association today that steps will be taken for the immediate repair of the Foothill boulevard, from San Leandro city limits to the center of Oakland. Baccus said that council proceedings ordering the work would be begun within a week.

Joseph E. Cairns, managing director of the Chamber of Commerce and state counsel for the Lincoln Highway Association, was the leader of the delegation, which numbered 15. Other speakers were Fred Scarris, F. A. Williamson and Fred Seuberg. The speakers argued that the highway is in splendid condition in all parts of the State with the exception of the last link on the Pacific coast side, which consists of the Foothill boulevard in Oakland.

Members of the committee announced that with the completion of the improvements a large decorative arch will be erected over the roadway at the San Leandro line, announcing that location as the Oakland city limits.

ACUTE AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may be also said with equal truth that it is a disease which is a specific in all cases. In fact the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few cases which have not been given a trial. In the hands of one observer we find that a certain drug has been used with the most satisfactory results. Others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by its administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. B. Scholtes expresses the opinion of thousands of practitioners when he says that anti-rheumatic tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain in all forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They are also unsuited in rheumatic neuritis and all pain. Ask for A-K Tablets.

The Fallacy of Paraffine Base

Eastern oil manufacturers have long extolled the superior virtues of paraffine-base motor oils. Of course! Paraffine-base crudes were nearest home, and freight costs lower.

But Pacific Coast motorists have proved for themselves that Zerolene, an oil made from selected California crude—asphalt-base, gave best results.

Now their practical experience is supported by the testimony of international experts.

Lieut. Bryan, a U.S. government expert, stated before the American Society of Naval Engineers, at Washington, D. C.: "Oils made from the asphalt-base crudes have shown themselves better adapted to motor cylinders, as far as their carbon forming proclivities are concerned than are paraffine-base Pennsylvania oils."

Zerolene is the oil used by the majority of Pacific Coast motorists. Highest competitive awards, San Francisco and San Diego Expositions.

WAR NO ACCIDENT, WILSON TELLS CADETS PRESIDENT MAKES WEST POINT ADDRESS

Opportunities of Army
Greatest in History

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 13.—"The world is going to know that when America speaks she means what she says," President Wilson told the military academy graduating class today. A moment before he had said: "Undoubtedly, gentlemen, it is the duty of America to be prepared."

President Wilson promised in behalf of the United States to uphold the Monroe doctrine. He promised, too, what he did not promise when he made the recent peace league speech, that when the time comes America will be ready to join the other nations to see that "that kind of justice prevails everywhere that we believe in."

To be military does not mean militaristic, the president said. He asked the West Point men not to forget that they are citizens first.

Mentioning the "small number" who loved their country more than the country of their adoption, he said, "Nobody who doesn't put America first can consort with us."

RESPONSIBILITIES.

"I look upon this body of men who are graduating today with a peculiar interest. I feel like congratulating them that they are living in a day not only so interesting because of the change, but also because of the responsibilities that are upon them. They are the only days that count in time, because they are the only days that give a test of quality. They are the only days when manhood and purpose are tried out as if by fire."

"I need not tell you, young gentlemen, that you are not like an ordinary graduating class of one of our universities. The men in these classes look forward to the life which they are to lead after graduating with a great many questions in their minds. Most of them do not know exactly what their lives are going to develop into. Some of them do not know what occupations they are going to follow. All of them are conjecturing what will be the life of duty and advancement and the ultimate goal of success for them."

LIFE IS CERTAIN.

"There is no conjecture for you. You have enlisted in something that does not stop when you leave the academy, for you then only begin to realize it, which then only begins to be filled with the full richness of its meaning and you can look forward with absolute certainty to the sort of thing that you will be obliged to do."

"This has always been true of graduating classes at West Point, but the certainty that some of the older classes used to look forward to is a very dull certainty. The early days in the army I fancy were not very interesting. Sometimes men, like the present chief of staff, for example, could fill their lives with really knowing and understanding the Indians of the west and looking forward to the going on inside of their minds and being able to be the intermediary between them and those who dealt with them by speaking their sign language, could enrich their lives. But the ordinary life of the average officer at a western post cannot have been very exciting and I think with admiration of those dull years through which officers who had not a great deal to do insisted, nevertheless, upon being efficient and worth while and keeping their men fit and ready for the duty to which they were assigned."

"But in your case there are many extraordinary possibilities, because, gentlemen, no man can certainly tell you what the immediate future is going to be, either in the history of the world, or in the history of the present great war came to Europe."

"Every element was there and the contest had to come sooner or later, and it is not going to be by accident that the results are worked out, but by purpose; by the purpose of the men who are strong enough to have guiding minds and are indomitable wills when the time for decision and settlement comes. And the part that the United States is to play has this distinction in it, that it is to be, in any event, a disinterested party."

NOTHING BY WILL.

"There is nothing that the United States wants that it has to get by will," the president continued, "but there are a great many things that the United States has to do. It has to see that its life is not interfered with by anybody else who wants something."

"These are days when we are making preparations. The things most commonly discussed over every sort of table, in every sort of circle, in the shops and in the streets, is preparedness, and undoubtedly, gentlemen, it is the present imperative duty of America to be prepared. But we want to know what we are preparing for. I remember hearing a wise man say once that the old maxim that everything comes to the man who waits is what he is waiting for, and preparedness might be a very hazardous thing if we did not know what we were to do with the force that we mean to accumulate and to get into fighting shape."

UNSELFISH NATION.

"America, fortunately, does know what she wants to do with her force. America came into existence for a particular reason. When you look about upon these beautiful hills and up this safety stream, and let your imagination run over the whole body of this great country from which you youngsters are drawn, far and wide, you remember that while it had aboriginal inhabitants, while there were people here, there was no civilization which we displayed. It was as if, in the providence of God, a continent had been kept waiting for a peaceful people who loved liberty and the rights of men more than they loved anything else, to come and set up an unselfish commonwealth."

"You are so familiar with American history at any rate in its general character, I don't accuse you of knowing the details of it, for I never found the younger who did, but you are familiar with the general character of American history, and it does not seem strange to you, but it is a very strange history."

"There is none other like it in the whole annals of mankind, of men gathering out of every civilized nation of the world an unused continent and building a policy exactly to their own ends, not under the domination of any ruling dynasty or the ambitions of any royal family, doing what they pleased with their own life on a free space of land which God had made rich with every resource which was necessary for the civilization they meant to build up. There is nothing like it."

HANDS OFF.

"Now, what we are preparing to do is to see that nobody means that, and that, being safe itself against invasion from the outside, its moral force is going to be behind its moral idea and mankind is going to know that when America speaks, she means what she says. I heard a man say to another, 'If you wish me to consider you witty, I must really trouble you to say to the rest of the world right to say to the rest of the world, if you don't want to interfere with us, if you are disinterested, we must really trouble you to give evidence of that fact.'"

"We are not seeking any selfish end and we want the whole mighty power of America thrown into that scale and not into any other. You know that the chief thing that is holding many people back from enthusiasm for what is called preparedness is the fear of militarism. I want to say to you, young gentlemen, about militarism. You are not a militarist because you are military. Militarism does not consist in the existence of an army, not even in the existence of a very great army. Militarism is a spirit. It is a point of view. It is a system. It is a purpose."

"The purpose of militarism is to use armies for aggression. The spirit of militarism is the opposite of the civilian spirit, the citizen spirit. In a country where militarism prevails the military man looks down upon the civilian, regards him as a factor, thinks of him as an enemy. In the military man's support and use, and just as long as America is America that spirit and that point of view are impossible with us. There is as yet in this country, so far as I can discover, no hint of the spirit of militarism."

NOT PREFERRED.

"You young gentlemen are not preferred in promotion because of the families you belong to. You are not drawn into the academy because you belong to certain influential families. You are not come here with a long tradition of military pride—any of you. You are picked out from the citizens of the United States to be that part of the force of the United States which makes its policy safe against interference. You are the part of American citizens who say to those who would interfere, 'You must not and you shall not.' But you are American citizens and the idea I want to leave with you boys today is this: 'No matter what comes, always remember that, first of all, you are citizens of the United States before you are officers and that you are officers because you represent in your particular profession what the citizenship of the United States stands for.'"

"You know that one thing in which our forefathers took pride was this, that the civil power is superior to the military power in the United States. Once and again the people of the United States have so admired some great military man as to make him President of the United States, to become commander-in-chief of all the forces of the United States before you were President, not because he had been trained to arms, and his authority was civil, not military."

"I can teach you nothing of military power, but I am instructed by the constitution to use your constitution and patriotic purposes. And that is the only use you care to be put to. That is the only use you ought to be put to, because, after all, what is the use of being an American if you do not know what it is."

"You have read a great deal in books about the pride of the old Roman citizen, who always felt like drawing himself to his full height when he said 'I am a Roman,' but as compared with the pride that must have risen to his heart when he saw a new distinction, not the distinction of the mere imperial power of a great empire, not the distinction of being masters of the world, but the distinction of carrying certain lights for the world that the world has never so distinctly seen before, guiding lights of liberty and principle and justice."

AMERICANISM.

"We have drawn our people, as you know, from all parts of the world, and we have been disturbed recently, gentlemen, because some of those, though I believe a very small number, have risen to his head and run into their hearts the spirit of America and have loved other countries more than they loved the country of their adoption and we have talked a great deal about Americanism. It ought to be a matter of pride with us to what Americanism really consists of. Americanism consists in utterly believing in the principles of America and putting them first as above any that might be."

Future of World Is Uncertain—Wilson

"But in your case there are many extraordinary possibilities, because, gentlemen, no man can certainly tell you what the immediate future is going to be, either in the history of the world, or in the history of the present great war came to Europe."

"Every element was there and the contest had to come sooner or later, and it is not going to be by accident that the results are worked out, but by purpose; by the purpose of the men who are strong enough to have guiding minds and are indomitable wills when the time for decision and settlement comes. And the part that the United States is to play has this distinction in it, that it is to be, in any event, a disinterested party."

AMERICANISM.

"We have drawn our people, as you know, from all parts of the world, and we have been disturbed recently, gentlemen, because some of those, though I believe a very small number, have risen to his head and run into their hearts the spirit of America and have loved other countries more than they loved the country of their adoption and we have talked a great deal about Americanism. It ought to be a matter of pride with us to what Americanism really consists of. Americanism consists in utterly believing in the principles of America and putting them first as above any that might be."

Says United States Disinterested in European Clash

of America thrown into that scale and not into any other. You know that the chief thing that is holding many people back from enthusiasm for what is called preparedness is the fear of militarism. I want to say to you, young gentlemen, about militarism. You are not a militarist because you are military. Militarism does not consist in the existence of an army, not even in the existence of a very great army. Militarism is a spirit. It is a point of view. It is a system. It is a purpose."

"The purpose of militarism is to use armies for aggression. The spirit of militarism is the opposite of the civilian spirit, the citizen spirit. In a country where militarism prevails the military man looks down upon the civilian, regards him as a factor, thinks of him as an enemy. In the military man's support and use, and just as long as America is America that spirit and that point of view are impossible with us. There is as yet in this country, so far as I can discover, no hint of the spirit of militarism."

NOT PREFERRED.

"You young gentlemen are not preferred in promotion because of the families you belong to. You are not drawn into the academy because you belong to certain influential families. You are not come here with a long tradition of military pride—any of you. You are picked out from the citizens of the United States to be that part of the force of the United States which makes its policy safe against interference. You are the part of American citizens who say to those who would interfere, 'You must not and you shall not.' But you are American citizens and the idea I want to leave with you boys today is this: 'No matter what comes, always remember that, first of all, you are citizens of the United States before you are officers and that you are officers because you represent in your particular profession what the citizenship of the United States stands for.'"

"You know that one thing in which our forefathers took pride was this, that the civil power is superior to the military power in the United States. Once and again the people of the United States have so admired some great military man as to make him President of the United States, to become commander-in-chief of all the forces of the United States before you were President, not because he had been trained to arms, and his authority was civil, not military."

"I can teach you nothing of military power, but I am instructed by the constitution to use your constitution and patriotic purposes. And that is the only use you care to be put to. That is the only use you ought to be put to, because, after all, what is the use of being an American if you do not know what it is."

"You have read a great deal in books about the pride of the old Roman citizen, who always felt like drawing himself to his full height when he said 'I am a Roman,' but as compared with the pride that must have risen to his heart when he saw a new distinction, not the distinction of the mere imperial power of a great empire, not the distinction of being masters of the world, but the distinction of carrying certain lights for the world that the world has never so distinctly seen before, guiding lights of liberty and principle and justice."

APPEAL TO REDFIELD TO END STRIKE

Temporary Truce in Big Dock Argument Is Ineffective

Conference at San Pedro May Offer a New Solution

Following efforts to patch up a temporary truce, which the waterfront employers' union declares have been defeated by the longshoremen's union, an appeal has been addressed by wire to William C. Redfield, Secretary of Commerce, to intercede in the strike which has the past two weeks paralyzed much of the shipping on the Pacific Coast. In spite of the fact that a joint conference committee last week announced a temporary agreement, which provided that the union men would return to work pending further negotiations, it is now charged that the men have declined to accept such agreement on the ground that the open shop clause is not determined and that a precedent might be established if this is neglected.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce urged action by the secretary, pointing out in its wire that the longshoremen of Tacoma, San Pedro, and Long Beach had declined to handle freight until the matter is determined disregarding the truce agreement, and thereby hindering the program of adjustment.

CONFERENCE IS ON.

Today a conference is in progress at San Pedro between representatives of both sides, while in the bay district and along the waterfront hurried arrangements are in progress for the accommodation of non-union longshoremen. A number of barges are being equipped for living quarters for non-union men who have been imported from the river boat fruit and vegetable cargoes.

In Oakland along the estuary where most of the lumber shippers have their wharves, there are a number of tie-ups. Some of the companies have acted independently and granted the demands of the union, but others are holding out pending negotiations. There have been no local clashes between the men and employers, but

King and Queen Attend Memorial Ceremonial in St. — Doubt

LONDON, June 13.—The late Earl

LONDON, June 13.—The late Earl Kitchener, Great Britain's premier soldier, lost when the cruiser Hampshire was sunk, has been buried in England, was paid today a tribute as great as England has ever given to her departed heroes.

The service in St. Paul's cathedral was attended by the King and Queen, persons attached to the royal house, many peers, soldiers and statesmen.

The doors of the cathedral opened slowly and a deluge of people poured into the building. Many rapid-fire announcements were made, but the most important was that the tickets were sold out. Thousands of applicants for admission were refused and it was said that Paul had waited three times the size of St. Paul's cathedral for the army officers who wished to attend.

The service virtually was divested of any military ceremonial. No troops lined the streets through which the royal party proceeded. The guard of honor, a feature was the part taken by the and of the Royal Engineers and the drummers of the Irish Guard, of which corps Earl Kitchener was honorary colonel.

The dead march was played by the band and the drummers and after the benediction the guardsmen were scheduled to sound the "Last Post."

In addition to the service in St. Paul's memory of the dead soldier was honored in the House of Commons. Mr. Asquith, first lord of the treasury, while a third service was held in Canterbury cathedral.

INDIANS BEYOND LAW.

—WASHINGTON, June 1.—Jurisdiction of the federal government to try offenses of Indians involving immorality committed on Indian reservations was denied today by the Supreme Court. The court, through Justice Vandewater, held Congress had no authority to regulate domestic relations of Indians in an Indian reservation.

Under the laws and customs of the representative tribes. The decision dismissed an appeal from the action brought by the Dakota Federal Court in quashing an indictment against a Pine Ridge reservation Indian.

BERKELEY, June 13. — There will be no violation of neutrality in the six public lectures on "Personality in German Literature," which the University of California today announced it has invited Dr. Kuno Francke, professor of the history of German literature in Harvard University, to give during the summer session. Professor Francke will begin with the Minnesingers of the 13th century and end with Erasmus and Luther's predecessors.

Regarded as the most distinguished lecturer in America of the literature and culture of the German-speaking peoples, Professor Francke is the son of a former judge in the Danish supreme court. Educated in the Kiel gymnasium and the University of Munich, Professor Francke has been a member of the faculty of Harvard University since 1905.

Besides giving a lecture in German at 8 o'clock every morning throughout the six weeks of the summer session, Professor Francke will also give a series of lectures on the history of German literature, from the Middle Ages to the present, with parallel readings of masterworks of German literature, from the "Nibelungenlied" to Goethe's "Faust." It has now been arranged that Professor Francke will give six general lectures at 8 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, in the Philosophy building, as follows: "The Minnesingers and the Courtly Epic of the Thirteenth Century," "Mysticism of the Fourteenth Century," "Popular Song and Popular Satire, From the Thirteenth to the Sixteenth Century," "The Religious Drama of the Fifteenth Century," and "Its Relation to the Renaissance," and "The Humanist Enlightenment: Erasmus."

HART ACCEPTS.
The university has just received an acceptance of the invitation which it had tendered to Albert Hart, professor of government in Harvard University and one of the leading authorities on American government and institutions, to give four lectures at the summer session. While the session will begin on June 26, Professor Hart's four lectures will be deferred until the summer session, Monday, July 24, the next to the last week of the summer session.

From many places.
It would be hard to find in America a more geographically varied student body than that of the approaching summer session, the university conducting an examination of the great number of applications for admission already received. One prospective student, for example, is a student at the University of Self in Holland and then at Hong Kong university, and comes to Berkeley to specialize in physics.

Another has studied in the University of Geneva and in Petrograd, and now enroute for summer work in England, and comes to Berkeley to specialize in physics.

Majority of the summer session students are not holders of a university degree, and many have never yet spent a day within the threshold of a university, and are ready for the first time to enjoy the opportunities and delights of the university of America will be numbered among the students.

A number of students are coming from Hawaii. One of the summer session students who is coming from Honolulu holds the degree of "Bachelor of Philosophy" from the Sorbonne, in Paris, has studied at Oxford, and now is coming to Berkeley for advanced work in European literature. Another student, a native of the Hawaiian Islands, is studying modern methods of commercial education. Another student is coming all the way from Saskatchewan.

To Honor Matron's Plea After Death

BERKELEY, June 13. — Members of the Berkeley Day Nursery board have not sought yet to appoint a successor to Mrs. Lillian Rhinoceros Simpson, for five years matron at the dispensary, whose funeral was held yesterday. The directors have been deeply moved by her death, as she had enlisted them all as personal friends besides as admirers of her faithful service.

The request of Mrs. Simpson, however, that Mrs. W. T. King, her assistant, succeed her, is expected to be followed by the directors.

Mrs. Simpson died at the home of Mrs. Allen G. Freeman on Le Roy avenue at the age of 54 years. She had been in charge of the nursery since its founding, and it had had a prosperous history during that period. Mrs. Simpson was engaged in kindergarten work in Hawaii. A brother, Brian Rhinoceros of Livermore, survives her.

ALAMEDA, June 13. — Prof. Thomas H. Reed will speak tomorrow night before the Alameda freetholders and citizens on the proposal of a charter for the three city side cities. Following the meeting tomorrow evening the freetholders will present to the actual work of framing the charter.

One More Cut to Spoil Building

And Yet What Is Board
Going to Do?

ALAMEDA, June 13. — The Board of Education will hold a special session this evening, conferring with East End residents regarding the difficulties in the way of building a new Lincoln school unit. The board has received bids and the bids are higher than the available funds.

The board has already eliminated several features which it was originally planned to incorporate in the new building and there seems to be nothing left to be discarded in order to reduce the price to the available money. The board will secure the views of the residents with the idea of finding the best solution of the perplexing problem.

RICHMOND PARADE SEEN BY HUNDREDS

Two Hundred Automobiles in Evening Demonstration at Richmond.

RICHMOND, June 13. — Almost two hundred automobiles, ranging in size from runabouts to big freight trucks participated last night in the largest and most interesting parade ever held in Richmond. It is doubtful if anything of the kind has ever been held about the bay. Not only was the parade a great collection of industrial and merchant cars and private automobiles but the passing of the parade brought out thousands of people who viewed it in its entirety from all points of the city.

The parade was the first event of the week, which is being celebrated by the Richmond merchants and the size of the demonstration exceeded the expectations of every one who worked for its success. Other events of the week are to be the free festival and dance at Koy Kove on the bay shore on Thursday night and a free gift day on Friday.

City Attorney D. H. Hall acted as orator of the evening and made two speeches, explaining the nature of the week.

In the parade, which was organized by the Richmond Automobile Club, a number of food products dealers had cars in the parade and distributed free samples of foods and fruits among the crowd.

Three big trucks, one of which carried the Richmond Concert Band, were entered in the parade by the Standard Oil Company.

Bert Wheeler, an old gravel pit boss, got some excellent practice for his work in the big parade of July 4, where he will act in a similar capacity. He handled the parade with great success.

Richmond Capitalist Divorced by Wife

RICHMOND, June 13. — Announcing that the property interests and community holdings were being divided, three big trucks, one of which carried the Richmond Concert Band, were entered in the parade by the Standard Oil Company.

STEVE PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL.
RICHMOND, June 13. — This evening members of the Steve Presbyterian church will hold their first social of the year. Rev. W. Dunlop of San Francisco has recently taken charge of the church and is endeavoring to increase the membership of the denomination.

SYKES FIGHTS TO MAINTAIN CHURCH

Will Not Move Tent Until He Is Forced to, Says Leader of Sect.

BERKELEY, June 13. — The Church of the Living God, against which excommunicated elders have brought charges in letters to the police and neighbors have complained of nocturnal disturbances, and which was last night the subject of charges of 14-year-old Louise Dean against John W. Clarke, a member, will appear in Judge Edgar's court to fight ouster proceedings, having pleaded not guilty yesterday in violation of the ordinance against maintaining a tent within the city limits.

E. D. Marx (Greens) will conduct the prosecution of Sykes in his capacity of city counselor. Sykes has waived jury trial and will have his hearing at Judge Edgar's court. He maintains that he applied for a permit before an ordinance was established and that an effort is now being made to make the ordinance retroactive in his case.

The police have received no further news from the whereabouts of Clarke. Rumors that he had gone to Seattle were refuted by the police there, but so far without resulting in his apprehension. According to U. N. Dean, father of Louise Dean and an elder in the church, Clarke had been repudiating for his intentions to other young girls in the fold.

Etcheberry Publishes Third Volume of Work

BERKELEY, June 13. — A third volume of nearly 500 pages has just been issued of the notable work on "Irrigation Principles and Engineering," written by Professor Bernard H. Etcheberry, head of the department of irrigation at the University of California. This volume is pronounced of much value not only to the engineer but to the farmer and the investor, is concerned with the various structures, including variations of topography and climate.

Among the topics dealt with are: design of works, standards of design, headgates, spillways, road crossings, and measuring devices. The volume affords a complete and up-to-date treatment of the use of irrigating water, a purpose of water not only for making a little higher ground, but in order to prevent the soil damage which comes to agricultural lands from wasteful use of irrigating waters.

Gravel Pit Will Be Greek Theater

BERKELEY, June 13. — Word has been received at the University of California that an open-air Greek theater, planned by the Greek theater at Berkeley, is to be built at Ganesha Park, Pomona, Los Angeles county. An old gravel pit has been purchased for the site. The theater will have a stage 120 feet long and 40 feet wide. The stage will be 15 feet higher than the stage of the old theater. The theater will be used for use for bonfires or as an athletic arena.

Admission will rise many tiers of seats, and the theater will be built in concrete. These tiers will be 32 inches wide and each tier will be six inches higher than the one below it. The distance from the footlights to the stage will be 150 feet.

Harms Asks Better Service to Berkeley

BERKELEY, June 13. — E. T. Harms, city commissioner of supplies, is delaying the date of the announcement of the election of a new city engineer. Harms expects to make a determined effort to secure the election of a new city engineer. Harms has been given many promises of support.

He agreed to become a candidate, said Harms today, because so many of his friends urged that I do so. There are many matters intimately connected with this city that have been continually overlooked by the supervisors and they need the attention of a man versed in Berkeley public affairs. San Pablo avenue is a matter that has been continually overlooked at this time to make any detailed statement. It is, however, definitely decided that I will run for the office and my organization is completed. I shall be ready to talk.

College Men in National Posts

Biggest Jobs to Grads,
Find U. C. Observers

BERKELEY, June 13. — However the tide of political fortune moves in National elections, the University of California graduates will not be disappointed by the election of either Wilson or Hughes and Woodrow Wilson or Charles Hughes and Woodrow Wilson or the latter of Princeton.

At the university here they have observed that, since the United States was founded, only one man in every 100 has gone through college. Yet from the group this produced have come 17 of the 28 presidents, 19 of the 27 vice-presidents and 17 of the 31 senators now in the Hall of Fame.

Only one per cent of the present population are college people, yet this small percentage furnishes 20 of the 51 governors, 20 of the 49 senators, 22 of the 49 congressmen and the entire supreme court bench. Over 50 per cent of the executive offices of nation and states are also, they estimate, held by college men.

Farewell Surprise Is Given Guest

ALAMEDA, June 13. — Miss Mary Tessman, a Chicago girl who for several weeks is visiting California friends, was tendered a farewell surprise party at the home of Mrs. B. Althebat, 1212 Oak street. Miss Tessman was the house guest of Mrs. M. David during her stay in Alameda.

Mrs. Althebat planned several amusements for her chief guest and others who were invited to the party. Among the attractions afforded, the evening terminated with the serving of a delicious supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. David, Mr. and Mrs. J. Southwell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davis, Miss Marie Lascruet, Miss C. B. Hammond, Miss Helen David, Miss Irene Johnson and Messrs. G. Braun Jr., Walter Braun, Alfred Althebat, Clyde Malone, James Taylor, Bernard Olsen and Beverly Stewart.

Madera Graduate to Address Pupils

BERKELEY, June 13. — Philip Conley, who was graduated from the University of California by selection as one of the three members of this year's graduating class to speak at the commencement day, and who was editor of The Californian, the student daily, last fall, has been invited by the faculty to address the pupils at the commencement address at his graduation exercises on June 22.

The Madera community feels special pride in his achievements at the university, since he was the first graduate of the Madera high school to graduate from the University of California.

U. S. Consul Baker and Wife Here on Visit

ALAMEDA, June 13. — United States Consul E. Clayton Baker of Nagasaki, arrived today in San Francisco on the transport Sheridan. He and his wife are coming to Berkeley to visit the family. Mrs. Baker is the daughter of a prominent Alameda family. This will be the first visit of the consul's wife to Alameda since the marriage following which she continued on to the Orient by way of the eastward route.

The consul is to proceed to Washington after a short visit with his mother. He expects to return to Nagasaki at the expiration of his term of absence.

Alameda Council to Hold Brief Session

ALAMEDA, June 13. — It is expected that the meeting of the City Council this evening will be short. The agenda of the council includes the adoption of the Central avenue paving applications and the passage of the special election ordinance. The principal matters to be considered.

SHELL STRIKE NEAR END.

MARTINEZ, June 13. — A tentative agreement between 13 striking pipemen and the Shell Oil Company here was reported to have been effected yesterday, where the strikers were conceding an eight-hour day time and one-half for overtime and a uniform scale for work on pipes. The strikers left their work last week.

STUDENTS NOT TO BE DISFRANCHISED

University Professors Hold
That Undergraduates Establish Residence.

BERKELEY, June 13. — Students of the University of California, whether they have already registered or register after their return to the university in August, will not be disfranchised by reason of their summer vacation away from the state. The political science department and Professor George C. Edwards have determined after a consideration of the law.

Only such students as make the mistake of registering during the present vacation from their home town and themselves barred from voting in Berkeley in the November elections. Those able to return home at that time to vote will not be disfranchised.

Closely to 2000 of the 6238 students attending college last semester registered for the primary election and will not have to re-register. Registration for November will close October 1, giving the returning students almost a month after college reopens in which to appear to this city as their residence.

The point recently was raised that students of the university were in reality visiting in this city and that their homes were, for the most part, elsewhere. Such a conception it was held would not give them the right to vote in Berkeley. As the law is strictly construed by the courts, it is expected that the only difficulty will be faced by the entering freshmen who, not having in the county the requisite 90 days by October 1, will not have qualified to vote. As the greater number of freshmen are under voting age anyhow, however, the number thus disfranchised will not be large.

Hawaiian Scholar Goes to Girl Student

BERKELEY, June 13. — The scholarship to maintain which $500 was recently given to the University of California by the Hawaiian Club of California, to Miss Bernice Smith, a graduate of Punahou and a former student of the college in Alameda.

PASTOR'S WIFE UNDER KNIFE

RICHMOND, June 13. — Funeral services were held this afternoon for Mrs. Emma Elliott Van Brunt, mother of W. A. Van Brunt, who died at her home at 1724 Alameda avenue, Mrs. Van Brunt died Sunday at her home, 1724 Alameda avenue.

She was a native of Bath, Maine, and came to California by way of the isthmus 32 years ago. She had made her home in Alameda for 20 years. She was a prominent member of the Unitarian church.

SAYS WIFE'S LOVE IS DEAD.

RICHMOND, June 13. — H. R. Taylor, prominent Standard Oil employee, today died this morning. His condition was not critical, is serious. Mrs. White's little daughter Dorothy, is also in the hospital under a minor operation.

POLICE TO GIVE BALL.

RICHMOND, June 13. — Plans for the annual ball of the Richmond police department widows and orphans (fund to be given at East Shore Park Saturday) have been completed by members of the department.

MARRIED LIFE

JAMES J. HILL AND GREAT NORTHERN

Late Financier Was First to See Value of Blanket Mortgage to Provide Needs.

In the railroad world, James J. Hill was known as the "Great Northern" man. He was the first to see the value of a blanket mortgage to provide the needs of the railroad. He was the first to see the value of a blanket mortgage to provide the needs of the railroad. He was the first to see the value of a blanket mortgage to provide the needs of the railroad.

More than one-half of the $500,000,000 mortgage is to be used to redeem outstanding bonds and those issued to buy the Great Northern's interest in the Burlington. Nearly $123,000,000 may be used to cover the cost of other properties acquired or to be acquired while $100,000,000 is being used to pay off the $100,000,000 mortgage.

Since Great Northern created the blanket mortgage, several large systems, notably, Northern Pacific, Great Northern, and Santa Fe, have followed suit, and others are considering it.

PINEAPPLE PACK ESTIMATED LESS

Inevitable Results of Production in 1915 Are Given as Cause of Falling Off.

One of Hawaii's interesting economic developments has been the rise of the pineapple industry. The pineapple pack is estimated to be less than in previous years due to the inevitable results of production in 1915.

The financial success of the earlier pineapple corporations so encouraged the extension of the industry, not only by these earlier corporations themselves but by large mainland canning interests, that the inevitable state of overproduction was reached.

The overproduction of the last year or two, combined with low prices for both raw and finished products, practically eliminated the financially weak and brought about a sudden curtailment in the industry.

Normal Conditions
Once More Prevail
Market Strong But Lacking Excitement and Breadth of Monday

NEW YORK, June 13.—The market settled down to more normal conditions at today's opening, the excitement and breadth of yesterday's early operations being altogether lacking.

Initial quotations were fractionally higher for the most part, although some issues, notably Texas Company, Long Island and Denver and Rio Grande preferred rose a point or more.

Street Sugar and Air Brakes were again conspicuous among the specialties, the former advancing to new record of $7 3/4. United States Steel, yesterday's leader, was barely steady, with pronounced heaviness in Mexican Petroleum.

AMERICAN STOCKS IN LONDON. Movements of representative American securities on the London Stock Exchange today included the following price changes: Declines—Johnson & Johnson, 1/4; Union Pacific, 1/4; United States Steel, 1/4; Advances—Missouri, Kansas & Texas, 1/4.

PROFESSIONAL COMMENT.

Clark, Childs & Co.—There is one bright side to the money situation, and that is, the fact that the market has been able to keep much stronger relatively than before.

DETECTIVE GOES EAST FOR THRILLS

Stationed at Convention, Is Center of Riot; Close Call.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Detective Sergeant McConnell of the local department, detailed in Chicago during the Republican National Convention, almost lost his life last week, together with Detective Sergeant Piroth of that city, according to advices received here today. After arresting three alleged pickpockets on a street car, and while taking them to a patrol box, the prisoners started to fight. A crowd gathered and the captives appealed for assistance. More than 500 men crushed in on the two detectives and attempted to rescue them. Rocks were thrown and sticks of wood were hurled at the officers. Piroth drew his revolver while McConnell held the prisoners. A riot

All the butcher shops in the bay region will be closed for the day in honor of the celebration. Special committees of Association are holding nightly meetings to rush to completion the list of the details for the special events for the day.

Oakland Woman Risks Dangers of Submarine

Out of Berlin and across the sea, taking the chances of submarine attacking the vessel on which she sailed, Mrs. Geo. Martin, a former belle of Oakland society, arrived yesterday to visit her mother, Mrs. M. A. Bates, at the family home, 314 Vermont street.

Despite the terrors of the sea, Mrs. Martin experienced no excitement whatever during her trip. The voyage, she said, was, in fact, uneventful.

In speaking of conditions in Germany, where her husband is a practicing dentist, she remarked that especially in Berlin, the conditions of life were far more comfortable today than has been generally rumored.

"The suspense of the German people in this war lies in their complete readiness to meet the crisis," said Mrs. Martin. "They have been prepared not only in a military way, but have been thoroughly ready in their mental attitude as well."

15-Year-Old Boy Is Charged With Burglary

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—With a loaded revolver belted about his waist and his pockets bulging with loot, John Gordon, 15 years old, of 1550 Sanchez street, was caught on Duboce avenue and Valencia street at four o'clock this morning. He was acting suspiciously in front of a cigar stand and reached for his gun as Patrolman Eugene Riley came suddenly up behind him.

At the Mission Station a search of his pockets revealed a burglary outfit, including pliers and skeleton keys. There was also about $150 worth of jewelry and pieces for pieces it was identical with a list of missing articles reported stolen from the home of Herman P. Seigler. The pistol holster and cartridges had also been taken from the Seigler residence, 173 Duboce avenue, June 6. Gordon declared that he had been afraid to dispose of his booty. He was taken to the Detention Home with a burglary charge against him.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them. To do this get about two ounces of plain powder from any drug store, sprinkle a little on a wet sponge, rub over the blackheads briskly, wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Leaving the parts without any mark whatever. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin—pinholes and squeezing only cause irritation, make large and do not get rid of them. The powdered norexin and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. Anybody troubled with these unsightly blemishes should certainly try this simple method.

LOTTERY GAME IS NIPPED BY POLICE

Offices of M. Bernstein and J. Schwartz Ordered Closed.

Offices of the Health Funding Company in the Fountains building, Twelfth and Franklin streets, have been ordered closed by Acting Chief of Police J. F. Lynch as the Oakland center of an attempt to rejuvenate the M. and F. lottery. M. Bernstein, office manager, and J. Schwartz, his assistant, were today informed by Captain Lynch that they would be placed in the city prison if they continued business. They locked the office doors and disappeared.

According to the police, the Health Funding Company was but a combination organized as a blind, through which the lottery concern, stopped in its open trafficking in the lottery game six months ago, sought to re-establish itself in Oakland. The officers are said to have been the lottery company's distributing office for this side of the bay. More than a dozen men, the police say, worked out of the place, distributing the tickets monthly.

The Health Funding Company officials operated in a rather clever manner, say the police, apparently providing inexpensive medical attention for those unable to pay for professional care. Contracts printed on cards bearing a number of four figures were issued to customers for fifty cents each. When three cards had been purchased an order on a physician for free examination and prescription was granted the holder. The lottery joker appeared on the contract number of each card.

San Francisco's monthly clearing house figures were made the basis of the monthly prize. The capital prize winning number was the last that appeared on the clearing house list. The holder of the ticket bearing a similar number was awarded a $1000 prize. Others were granted terminal and approximation prizes. Bernstein told Captain Lynch that a man named Gordon was the head of the concern in San Francisco. The police believe this man to be the same Gordon who was connected with the affairs of the Metzger and Franklin Lottery Company at the time it was put out of business in the bay cities six months ago.

The local police were apprised of the nature of the business conducted by the Health Funding Company several weeks ago, and detectives were placed on the detail. Their string of evidence complete, the police inspectors reported to Captain Lynch, who immediately ordered the closing of the offices.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Alfred Castro was set upon by robbers in his room at the Bancroft Hotel, 138 Townsend street at 1:30 this morning, although threatened with death if he notified the police, brought about the capture of his assailants and a woman who had menaced him with a pistol. Answering a knock on his door, Castro was seized by two robbers, thrown upon his bed and $15 taken from him. When his assailants left he ran down stairs, where he was stopped by Mrs. Lizzy Shackelford, the proprietress, who drew a derringer from her satchel and threatened him with death if he "squealed." With Corporal Maloney and three officers, Castro returned and pointed out Hugh Pile, a tailor, and George Thursman, an electrician who were charged with robbery and the Shackelford woman who was booked for assault with a deadly weapon. Castro further complained that he had brought liquor into the house and when the police found a quantity of beer and whisky, Mrs. Shackelford was also charged with selling liquor without a license.

$10,000 Damages for Fall in Shaft Asked

Suit for $10,000 damages has been brought in the Superior Court by Albert R. Ford, a former parcel post delivery man, against James Presho, a property owner of 1808 Tenth avenue, and Sidney E. Ford, a brother of the plaintiff, of Washington street. Ford, who has retained Attorneys Outlander, Clark & Carey, alleges that he incurred permanent injuries last February, when he fell into an elevator shaft in a building owned by Presho and occupied partly by Rands at 18 San Pablo avenue.

Ford explains that he regularly delivered packages to Rands Brothers, who instructed him in the use of the elevator. On the occasion of the accident, he says, he went to the end of a dark hallway to use the elevator and when he opened the door at the top of the shaft he stepped into space instead, falling twelve feet and suffering broken bones and internal injuries.

Sacramentan Opposes Reorganization Plan

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Edwin O. Edgerton of the state railroad commission today heard the plans formulated by the Northern Electric Railroad to reorganize the entire system. An objection was filed with Commissioner Edgerton by Louis J. Bonheim of Sacramento, who opposed the plan proffered to the rail board. Bonheim sought to have the commission grant the Northern Electric permission to issue only one group of bonds to be distributed among the holders of present bonds and that should not exceed the assets of the company. Bonheim stated to Edgerton that the bankers of Sacramento had never thoroughly approved of the present plan of reorganization reached by the railroad company.

Indoor Life Makes Fat

TRY OIL OF KOREIN TO KEEP WEIGHT DOWN. OIL TO REDUCE SUPERFLUOUS FAT.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stress, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air is said to weaken the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any persons who are afflicted in their own mind that they are too stout are advised to go to Drug Dept. at Kahn's, Broadway, San Pablo and Sixteenth street, or a good druggist and get a box of oil of korein capsules, and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, improved digestion and a return of the old energy, footstep becoming lighter and the skin less flabby in appearance as superfluous fat disappears.

Oil of korein is inexpensive, cannot injure, and helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.
